It's really cool, I love the washed colours on the space theme, it looks good. The only thing that annoys me a lot is the crispy reflection on wiz' head and the way up, you should take a 0% hardness big eraser and clean that part imo.

I agree with him.

Also, (just my opinion) I think it's overdone at the bottom. Too many hard brush strokes.

This piece lacks depth and good lighting, all the OP has done was find some stocks place them together and blend them a little bit. Maybe it ended up looking nice but he didn't do a lot to it. Almost over half of it was someone Else's work.

Looks nice, sorta an overused style but good work nonetheless

All I'm going to say is wow! I really love this design! Amazing job!

This looks somewhat decent compared to other designs I see in this sub-forum, but it does not have any depth. Yes the design looks nice, but it doesn't seem like you put a lot of effort into it since it lacks basic lighting.
