This is what motivates me, I hope you watch this and also get motivated.
Sometimes, all you really need is some motivation.
Enjoy!

That's crazy lol, I've been watching loads of ET's stuff recently :)

I know what you mean though, motivation helps in everything, ETs stuff and a bunch of other video's playing in the background got me through my first horrible night on probux, where I was doing tasks for almost like three hours - but all in all it was definitely worth it.
