As long as we're talking about some stuff, and not just posting things like
Code kasfnhlkfashojdashfkljsdhklfsdhlsdhgfsjit's okay.

And we are allowed to post more than once, so.... xD

It's not a bug I think.. people are just removing some replies that they posted before. When number 150 is removing his comment number 201 will go to 200.

Yea I see. Because I have seen like 5 guys the 201st post. I hope the host of the contest knows how to handle this :p.

~HF~ - August 1, 2013, 9:41 am

The reason why the posts keep changing is because people were probably deleting their posts so it went down by 1 so they could cheat and win tbh the first one who provided proof of their post should win.

Burky - August 1, 2013, 9:43 am

I knew people would delete their post, but TheDarkness won as he was #201 post.

He has shown my his inbox full of messages congratulating him that he won. And others showing me he was first.

Although you screenshotted it was clear you wasnt the very first person the hit the #201 post mark. As you said in the post, then when people deleted their post allowing you to move up so in theory you was after the #201 post mark.
