If you don't know what it's you want the 8 digit because it's cheaper and digts probably have no meaning for you.

But I'll explain what digts is.

8 digts = a steam ID with 8 digts, see example below

Code STEAM_0:0:12345678

7 digts = a steam ID with 7 digts, see example below

Code STEAM_0:0:1234567

So why is fewer digts more worth?

- They're older, more rare and cheaters could use fewer digit steam IDs to get in to leagues etc.

Aslo it could be a thing to buy to just show off, just imagine to have a 1 digit steam account, there are only 17 of them in the world.

(Aug 19, 2013 06:13 AM)?ick Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Maybe consider giving out a vouch copy to a trusted L33T or UB3R to kick start your sales?

Not saying me, but I would contact someone.

Good luck with selling OP!

Hahaah are you kidding me, no need for that lol.

Alright.. just suggesting... no need to be rude about it. I've always had success when an UB3R got a vouch copy from my sales thread and vouched on the thread so people could see and make more people trust me.

(My experience is I sold Origin accounts for a looong time)
