Thread: The Empire's One Year Anniversary & Changes

Tibit - August 1, 2013, 7:11 am

Just posting a quick notice before I head to the airport.

First, Happy Anniversary to The Empire, it will be 1 year old on August 7th.

Second, as mentioned in my HF News interview for this week's edition, I am retiring as owner of The Empire and giving it away for free to xadamxk to take run. I will transfer ownership to him sometime after my vacation once he's ready. It's never been done with a paid group, but I believe it's better to have the group continue to run with the many friendships it's created over time and continue to be a place of strong community on the site instead of being greedy and selling it for a quick buck.

Upon my return from my vacation I won't be nearly as active as I have been over the last year as I don't have a much free time as I used to.

The Empire will remain the same for the most part, same gfx, info, etc. The only main difference is it will be xadamxk's group instead of mine. For more specifics feel free to read my interview here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3658721>

I've send Omniscient a PM to change xadamxk to moderator of The Empire. Glad to have had the opportunity to run the group for a year and I wish Adam luck in continuing it.

Sounds good.
Congratz to xadamxk. :)

Vince - August 1, 2013, 7:13 am

Oh shit. Adam is going to be owner? :o Well congrats adam!

The Eternal - August 1, 2013, 7:13 am

Sad to hear this.
I'm sure he will also da a great job as you did. :)

Chief - August 1, 2013, 7:13 am

Congrats on 1 year. I remember my months as a leader. It was nice meeting new people.

Good luck to Adam on his ventures with the group. Good luck to you as well Dylan.

VRUMM - August 1, 2013, 7:15 am

Good bye Tibit for now and may you have a nice trip.

Rustler - August 1, 2013, 7:16 am

Hey Tibit,

That is unbelievable! You're generous, but I bet he deserves it!

Hope you enjoy your holiday!

I'm excited to see changes

Emylbus - August 1, 2013, 7:16 am

The Empire has been the best well run group I've ever been in and Tibit is the reason. xadamxk is more than qualified to take the reigns, but I know we'll miss you greatly and it won't be the same without your tyrannical oversight! :P

Have fun on your vacation!

'Snorlax - August 1, 2013, 7:17 am

Have a good trip, Tibit.

The group will once again be in good hands!

Le?on - August 1, 2013, 7:19 am

Congratulations on one year! It's a great achievement.

'Cody - August 1, 2013, 7:33 am

Congratulations on the 1 year but the group will surely be renamed to iEmpire when it's transferred over to Adam.

Triestri - August 1, 2013, 7:39 am

So xadamx will be able to sell and change the group whenever he wants, or will you still be owner?

Technically he would, but I'm positive he won't.

Tibit is transferring ownership (which means he will not own The Empire anymore) to xadamxk.

xadamxk will be the full owner and do with it what he pleases. However I'm confident he'll keep it largely the same as what has been working well for the past year.

MyLittlePony - August 1, 2013, 7:44 am

T'was a good run Tibit, hope this is what you want.

1 year that's quite an achievement. Hope to see more from Empire!

iKinky - August 1, 2013, 8:05 am

I am so happy to be apart of The Empire.

The past 60 + days I've been in the group are the best days I've ever had with a group.

You're leaving the group in the right hands though, Adam is King Noob!

Pentatonix - August 1, 2013, 8:06 am

Bye you sexy beast. See you later today. :p

Plunder - August 1, 2013, 8:41 am

You're a great guy, tibit. Won't be forgotten.

Locklyon - August 1, 2013, 8:44 am

Its sad actually to see Tibit leaving,also it is great to see xadamxk becoming owner of the group i'm sure that he will do a great group since he is really active and a great guy on hack forums!

Good luck adam with the group, hope you do a great job and ye forgot to say congratulations on one year ^^

It's crazy to think that the Empire will turn one in just a few days. I joined about a month or so after its release date, and I can't believe how time has flied.

Will full ownership be transferred, or just moderating powers inside of the sub-forum?

Flaaffy - August 1, 2013, 11:32 am

Dayum Tibit, that is one hell of a move. Congratulations this kinda shows just how dedicated you are to be able to transfer the group you worked so hard on for free!

In all fairness, he didn't give the group to adam. All he's giving to adam is moderator privileges -- something that would be very wise to do, for the group's sake, seeing as Tibit's going to be taking his break from HF.

Afaik?

He's just has the ability to moderator the sub-forum now. That's literally the only change in the group. Someone correct me if I'm wrong?

I'm aware what Tibit's interview said. I'm telling you the reality, though. Adam's not owner of the group -- Tibit is. Adam is moderator, as of now, of the usergroup The Empire.

With keeping in accordance to HF private messages staying confidential, I'll just tell you I'm correct and you'll have to take my word.

EDIT; It kind of sounds like I'm mad. I'm not. I'm just telling you what's up.

It'll be interesting to see how the group fares under new ownership, but I don't think there will be much difference. Correct me if I'm wrong, but should the group be sold at some point in the future, you won't see any of the revenue, will you Tibit?

Time has gone by pretty quickly.

To clarify this as I had quite a few people ask.

Currently Adam will remain moderator of the group. Once he is ready and I am no longer really on HF, the group will be transferred over to him completely, I'd guess that will be in a couple months or so, but most likely before New Year's at the latest.
