Thread: [\[Need\] Place to buy nice designed clothes](#)

MultipleChoice - August 5, 2013, 9:43 pm

Looking for a place that sells good clothes. It has to be school appropriate, no nudity, swearing, smoking, that kind of stuff.

I want a place that would accept PayPal as a payment and would ship to the US.

Basically looking for cool designs like this

I'm also looking for this.

I got some stuff here earlier today

Have you checked out JackThreads yet?

They have very cheap clothes, especially designers ones. I mostly buy sneakers from there because they are nice and cheap :3

Go check it out. Tell me what you think. xD

Both Plnder and karmaloop have a massive border tax so id suggest not using if you live outside of the states.

Karmaloop and Plnder are the best bet. Can't really think of any other websites.
