Thread: [\[\$800\] Method I Found \(Unknown\) \[Constant Contacting Customers\] \[Hundreds+ Daily\]](#)

??s?? - August 10, 2013, 11:33 pm

I've recently inquired a vulnerability in a way, if you'd like to call it that, which allows me to have constant contact from people looking for a certain thing.

What is the thing there looking for you ask? I don't want to reveal it so don't ask me, but I will tell you it's something 89-99% of all Americans use, and it's specifically relating to something that brings you constant traffic from customers.

I am going to be using this for myself for a little not going to lie, but once I get a few hundreds I'll stop and sell it over too someone for $800 flat, just the 'exploit' and I will stop and let you be the ONLY person using this. Now if your looking to pay around $1000 I can workout a more complex system that I am thinking of building (hasn't been built, CAN be built though) that would make things more automated, increase buyers and sales.

Oh and this 'exploit', 'niche', ;'method' whatever you want to call it is literally no one can use but you your the only person, get's massive traffic from probably the most reputable site out there (customer traffic), and can pretty much get customers for at LEAST a few more years.

No bull shitters, don't waste my fucking time.

If this automated method will make more than the cost price $800, in 2-3 years time, then why would you want to sell it?

Just curious. Otherwise it sounds like a very interesting method. GL!

Any payment proof? Sounds like it could be interesting.

SkyRider2 - August 11, 2013, 12:27 am very interesting man, mind PMing me a little more information man?

Never said it was automated, read again. Only thing automated is the constant customer contacts you will be getting. You still have to make the sale and you can change that price to whatever you literally want per customer, theres no fixed price.

Apologies, I skimmed over too quickly. But "in your opinion" would it be able to make the $800 back fairly easily with the right amount of work?

I'll wait for payment proof or IRL money proof.

ezeeprofit - August 11, 2013, 3:07 am

If the customers are usually after the same type of item. Can you please state roughly how much them items sell for

There is no work to be done, you just get customers interested and you propose your offer, I usually tell them $99-$299.

Market ranges from Musicians, Artists, Sports Stars, and people similar to that.

This isn't a book, this only works for one person at a time (at the moment it's me). learn to read a thread and stop leeching for vouch copies, get off the marketplace.

Like I said, there is no flat rate you can charge them literally whatever you seem fit that the customer would pay. I usually tell them $99-$299 but like i said if someone approaches you like "I'll pay over a thousand for this yada yada!" clearly you should up your price.

Please, just stop posting on my thread. ???

I made this entire thread, it's a lie, it's just for popularity.

Because a random and untrusted l33t reviewing something and saying that it's legit will make me want to buy it. Obvious leecher is obvious.

OP, good luck with sales. I'd provide some payment proof, though.

??s?? - August 11, 2013, 1:55 pm

Thanks for the interest guys but I currently have a member whom is interested and seems serious to make his payment. So I'd like to hold off on taking new offers.

With that being said you can still contact me but if this guy buys before you, he's gonna be the only one who get's it unfortunately. Upon payment completion I will close this thread though, so if you see it open feel free to make another offer if you wish but please make sure your serious. Current buyer is looking to pay $800 (I think he wants the $1k package though), if you want to out bid him you'd pretty much have to since it'd be unfair to sell it to the other person after he contacted me first. :)

Beilinder - August 11, 2013, 2:15 pm

Sounds very interesting. Don't have the money, but I wish you GLWS man.

??s?? - August 13, 2013, 4:45 pm

Okay guys original buyer wasn't able to get the funds in time, so I'm reopening back the sale to sell it to someone else.

riekal - August 13, 2013, 6:39 pm

I can vouch for basix, Good luck with sales

??s?? - August 25, 2013, 10:01 am

Alright well I put this method on hold for the last time. For the next person interested in buying this, you better not be wasting my time with curiosity and better have to money and motive to buy, not just try to get a hint of what the method is.

Fucking children on HF, it's ridiculous.

Are you actually delivering the products or just "scamming them". Whitehat/blackhat?

Your not giving a product, your providing a service that is of no cost to you.

+Affinity - August 26, 2013, 4:26 pm

Is this stiil available? PM me if it is thanks.

Yes it is still available, I've sent a Private Message if you would like to have a follow up.

At this moment the method is still working, and unclaimed, so please only SERIOUS buyers contact me. :)

EvilMorty - November 9, 2013, 10:42 am

Damn man, if I had $800 or $1,000 laying around I'd buy this. It sounds awesome.

Good luck to whoever gets it. I bet it'll make them a fine income!

??s?? - November 12, 2013, 8:06 pm

It's funny becuase this method is the reason why I've quit hack forums for the past few months haha

Mrtls - November 14, 2013, 3:38 am

When delivering the service that these customers are contacting you for, in which way, would you as responsible, recieve the payment from them? Through an payment processors, or? May be interested.

Mrtls - November 19, 2013, 2:16 pm

Do you still have this available, or have you choose to keep it yourself? Just wondering, since I have both the money and time to invest in something in the nearest future.

??s?? - April 12, 2014, 11:12 pm

Well I thought I would this since it's been so god damn long since I've even logged into Hack Forums.

Well guys, this method has been proving itself useful still thus far.... I've been able to purchase a new BMW with this method over time saving up, and has been a great side-money provider in comparison to my primary jobs. I am now willing to sell this once again, but for now permanently.

Offers are accepted, although I'm not sure if my base stated price still stands. I won't reply to curious kids.

?????M1kep????? - April 12, 2014, 11:21 pm

Can you at least provide some proof of some sort?

Viet - April 12, 2014, 11:29 pm

Contacted you to purchase this.

Message .

centrecore7 - April 13, 2014, 4:17 am

Very interesting... can you provide any proof of traffic to your site.. or payment received???

Viet - April 15, 2014, 9:33 am

Me and Basix have came into agreement and I have sent him payment via BTC, hope the investment was promising, will let everyone know how it goes.

Mystoh - April 15, 2014, 4:27 pm

Lol last time I checked, Basix quit Hack Forums like almost a year ago. I would verify it is Basix before doing any deals

Viet - April 15, 2014, 6:09 pm

His recent post and his PM's sound like Basix, but you're probably right because I'm pretty sure he just scammed me.
