zombieman - August 12, 2013, 6:46 pm

Go ahead and shoot some questions.

I have experience with MyBB, PHP, HTML, CSS, and MySQL.

I need help installing a theme. I installed the .xml file, i uploaded all of the images in to the image directory. But when I go on the site the theme works, but the icons don't appear and some of them are even from my old theme, yet I deleted all of those.

You might have to change the urls in global.css, or you didn't make a directory from the themes images.

The directories are correct.

That's one and I checked it and it's the correct file path and that is where the .gif is but it's not loading for some reason.

EDIT: got it to work. lol i flushed my dns before but it didn't work and I did it again and now it's working. Whatever.

Thanks for the help though :D

I'm pretty sure you have to edit the global.css, or the .css file for the tabs.

I cannot make a account on that website idk why. The 1 post per download shit is bugged too.

Still need help with this.

CreativeFX - September 15, 2013, 10:24 am

Try a plugin from the mybb mods site.The only one there i have tried is a whole different plugin.

OddTarantulas - July 1, 2014, 11:50 am

Hi zombieman, I was wondering how do you modify your mybb theme using photoshop

Cap - July 1, 2014, 4:04 pm

I asked this question in Addiction's MyBB Help Desk, but he never responded. I'm wondering if you have any idea.

I've created a custom profile field and I know there is a setting for limiting the maximum amount of characters. My question is, how would I go about limiting certain custom profile fields to a minimum amount of characters required? Thanks for the help!

Betmon - July 2, 2014, 10:04 pm

I need to limit a users size for their signature, some users are making HUGE signatures and tht should not be allowed, please let me know how to do this, btw I have tried many tutorials but cant get it to work. thanks

Apparently MyBB doesn't let you do that right now. You can probably do it with a custom plugin though, not too difficult actually.

If I'm correct, just reset that template so the default ficons come back. Then install a ficons plugin, upload the images, and once you do that to back to that template and delete the regular ficons code.

Hope I helped. ?

Can't give you my skype at the moment, but if you're getting spammers, try enabling reCaptcha as an option, and turn on e-mail activation or admin activation.

I had a lot of spam issues so I used a couple different ways to stop spam, it stops a lot of bot spam and spam-type posts, but sometimes the spam passes the filters. I've only had one occurrence of spam passing our filters, and we get hundreds of spam threads daily (trying to be made).

Make the changes yourself (the template edits and stuff)
