Antigen's Feedback Thread

Welcome to my Hack Forums Feedback. Thanks for reading.

I'll start off with the little story of how I found HF, My life with computer starts when my dad bought a PC when I was 12 year old, I was very fond of hacking and related stuff, one of my hobbies were searching for hacking methods and stuff. HF popped up on Google many times whilst searching for hacking related stuff, I used to come here and read threads, I've had no aims or fixed goals and was like a wanna be a great Haxor, obviously I couldn't learn anything because I never had a basic knowledge nor platform. After some years in 2012 I joined hackforum while I was searching for vb .net resources, I used to code simple programs in VB6 and C++ by that time, I find Hackforums quite helpful and interesting.

I find HF quite useful for me, everything I needed to know was in Hackforums. Frankly speaking I took some time to blend in with HF system, I was a complete skid by then like my first thread was "How to get rep" lol, I guess there weren't many trolls back then, what I mean by trolls is the ones waiting in launch for a normal member to put some non-sense then fire their negs and neutrals because they can't rep back, I always prefer to PM/Post them and tell why it's not allowed, they just joined and they might skimmed through Rules docs that doesn't give us the permission to be a dick to them. The first days of mine was like of everybody else rep, award, post and group whore. After my first days, I learned that rep and post count meant shit. I was getting addicted to forums by that time and I decided to upgrade to l33t. One of my dream was to get in to Root group because it was the only group related to what I wanted, I'm happy that I'm now a part of Legion another group which relate to forum's title.

I was starting to get addicted to HF by that time, I was like visiting HF as much as possible like from college library PC, I got a big hacking section and whole coding sections, all I needed was time and interest. Sadly I've a busy life, I have to go to college at 7 o'clock in the morning and I came back at 7 in the evening, and shit load of college works !! I used to wander in Hacking forum and Computing forum most of the time, I learned about hacking(not much of) basics in that time and started to giving back to community by helping newbie members in Beginner sections. There were many helpful members in Beginner section, it seems like I can't remember many of them, I'll quote a few I remember of Jewel, Apple J4ck, Perfect cell . Market/Money sections remained as complete uninteresting areas as because I didn't had any interest in business, my intentions were not moneymaking but for gaining knowledge.

I applied for Ub3r and got denied, oh boy that was the most depressed days for me on HF. I were really sad back then because I felt like I'm not good enough, I got the Ub3r in second time. I got my Ub3r from lovely member Dan.(Thank you for the upgrade contest) by the Christmas eve, I was very excited and happy.

After some time being Ub3r here comes my days of depression and a long vacation from HF, I don't know why but I lost all my interest in not only HF but from everything, I started to be a alcohol addict, watch TV at all my spare time, academics went downhill etc, it was like I lost my hope or interest in life. I took a long vacation from HF about 5 months from HF.

Days of new age - after that long depression period I started to get back to normal life and came back to HF. I started to use HF like I was in my joining time, I made a bunch of good friends from HF. Why I called this time a reckoning period is because I started to set goals and started to work hardly for them. I used to visit computing section instead of hacking section by that time and become mad about whitehat. I started reading every thread in WHH and keep learning, I met many great members by that time like Corso, Chirf and Viral Dragon. They offered great help for me in WHH and Corso and Chief even started a small group of WHH students, I learned a lot under his mentorship. By that time I got in to some groups (Legion and Brotherhood), both groups still remain as of my homes. My current goals are to get more knowledge in Whitehat/Security, and to learn some hacking stuff. I'm very motivated and working on my goals as of now.

I love HF very much just like everybody. I always wondered about the knowledge some members possess in HF, There are many knowledgeable and helpful members in Hackforums, I met many such members and enjoyed their friendship and care. There are several things that I don't like in HF like the ones who play dick with new/normal members with their rep, trolls and scammers. I find it quite embarrassing when members troll newbies in Beginner Hacking section and WHH too, why don't they have the fuckin brain to understand the newbies act like newbies because they are newbies >?.

Sectional Feedback

Computing - I usually reside 70% of my time here, White Hat Help is my favorite section of mine, I love helping members here, I study each thread before I answer. All the threads in WHH section gave me experiance and happen to learn new information. I often sneak in to MRT section to learn and analyse logs by myself ? I wrote some tutorials and mega threads here. I visit all sections here except Apple section. 40% of my posts are here.

Hacking - It's a great place to learn hacking and have many HQ members right here waiting to help others, I used to help members in Beginner Hacking section. 35% of my posting is in this section.

Coding - I find this great section because of the knowledgeable members and their willingness to help, I used to post all my doubts and coding related problems there, and got instant answers here.

Omniscient —

I would like to thank you for the hard work you put in to HF. You are a great entrepreneur and successful forum admin, your crowd(member) control abilities amazed me many times.

Paradoxum —

You are a kind and knowledgeable member, Once I did something wrong and you PMed me and explained me the whole case without issuing a warning or something, One of the genuine hardworking individual/bot.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/legion.gif[/img] This group is the most HQ group I've ever been, subforums are filled with HQ tuts and guides. There are many knowledgeable helpful members here, kudos to all Legion Teachers and leaders, Anonymous is a great dedicated individual.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/hf-mrt.png[/img] This is the best and most HQ community I've seen on HF, by HQ means knowledge in whitehat and willingness to help others. These guys work all day/night to help members without getting a penny, hat's off to all members of MRT. One of my wannabe and dream group. I'm waiting for the recruitment. HF owes you a lot.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/brotherhood.png[/img] I like Brotherhood because it's active and do have many friendly members, I've been a member for more than 2 months and I've seen BH helps members. I love the group projects. There are many tuts all around the forum contributed from Brotherhood. We are the united brotherhood.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/alliance.gif[/img] I really find this classic group stands unique from all others, you do have the knowledgeable members, One of my wanna be group.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/complexity.gif[/img] I don't know much about this group but I really wanted to join because group's subjects match with my expertise and interest.

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/empirev3.gif[/img] I never been in but I'd like to next time, I've heard that you are a very active community and act as as a family. I'd seen the tutorial from members. I'd like to be in your family, I'll apply in your next recruitment

[img]http://x.hackforums.net/images/blackreign/groupimages/english/143_group.gif[/img] I really don't see you guys much, I've seen your massive contests and I know you give back a lot to HF. You are kind of closed to yourself and I've heard that you help members with emotional support/IRL issues.

VietJr™ : My first friend on HF + First negrep lol.

Jewel/Jae? : I still admire you, helped me a lot.

Apple J4ck : Thank you for your help, I still remember you. You left hacking section and went to Market ?

LevelUp : You made me motivated bro. Your progress from a normal hf member to one of the best genuine hackers in this forum made me wonder.

y try it y : That mistake cost you your HF account ?

Corso : Antigen at your service master ?

Chief : I love you Ninja cat.

im abcd : Great Malware killa.

Hepic : Yey I love Greece.

vidhun : Brotha I owe you.

Viral Dragon : You should be getting the Cool award.

LighterFluid : Instant love on you bro, if you didn't helped me, this feedback wont be completed.

630 : Instant love on you bro, if you didn't helped me, this feedback wont be completed.

If I forgot you don't feel bad about it and please PM me.

It's a bit lacking in terms of the sectional/staff feedback IMO. That being said what has been written was written very well.

This is a very nice feedback thread, I hope to be here for a year to post one of these. Its nice to see that regardless of what you went through, you still came back to this epic(except for trolls) community. You can tell by the way you express yourself in text that you're a energetic and loose guy, I'd love to talk with you sometime when we have something to talk about ^_^

Also, I lol'ed at this: 'One of the genuine hardworking individual/bot.'

If I recall correctly, Froggy was one of the original 20 students that passed the first screening and was not given a chance until recently. Perhaps you have seen our private documents and can tell me otherwise? On what basis are you declaring that posting regularly in certain sections warrants an entrance into the team? ? This is of course generally-speaking and not, in any way, referring to Antigen's situation.
