Thread: [\[Community Alert\] uid=167756 Trying To Infect Users With JDB!! Trashing Users!!](#)

MeVsJad - August 21, 2013, 6:12 am

EDIT: THE RSPS HE WAS ADVERTISING IS A JAVA DRIVE BY!!!
He's TRYING TO INFECT ALL MEMBERS!!!

first off, nice editing when I sent this mass message, about 3 months ago.

This user has flamed non stop for the past month.

He's raging because I sent out a mass message, about 5 months ago, with a youtube video containing a rat. He took this so personally he has spent an excessive amount of time trying to get me.

He also is doing this because I refused to sell him GP, because he flamed.

Little kid with issues.

Lets show the entire conversation, this low skum.

You have sent me over 5+ mass messages, about your JDB RSPS, which I decompiled and found a nice little keylogger in it, if you want picture of that, please PM me, and I will post on your servers forums, if u have any.

Also,

You're such a low life piece of shit, who edits out everything and only puts the things that show me as bad.

Should see what this user does. Then after I left him rep and posted stuff on him, he tries to get me to remove it and put it behind us. What a joke!

Oh the illiteracy in that Skype chat :x

Anyways, this should be between you two because there isn't anything major in it besides he RAT claim. No one else complained about your message, so it should've stayed between you two.

PM me a link to the YouTube video. I'll put it through VMware and check it out.

Nevermind.

I think you are the one who's at fault here. What I'm getting from this is you sent him a RAT, then he started making fun of you because he would never fall for that. Any logical person would do the same.

Video has been removed for over 2 months.

Any person with 'logical sense', would ignore me and/or block me for sending that mass message.

This isn't a community alert its just a bitch fit. No one cares about personal issues you have with him and this certainly doesn't belong in Marketplace Discussion.

Couldn't agree more to that, Cody.

OP and his friend should both stop their childish behaviour and move on.
