Just 2 questions. First one, are leaders the only people in 143 who decide who joins. Second, do you guys only add positive contributing members of HF, or some other requirement?

Ariana Grande - August 23, 2013, 5:53 am

(Aug 23, 2013 05:12 AM)Connected Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Well, your signature turns me off big time. It's a song by a very influential rapper about how during 9/11 the victims in the Twin Towers were stuck and had no way to escape and had to accept their fate and pass away, same as how would happen in the event of the lyrics within my signature. However I don't think a quote from a song has anything to do with my question.

Regardless of your opinion on my signature, that wasn't an answer to my question. I was asking a member or leader of the group for clarification.

I'd assume so, although at one point Yellows did help with recruitment, not sure if he still does. ?

As for the requirements to get into the group, I'm more than sure they're not gonna tell them too anyone.

No, there's no recruitment thread we've always scouted our members on our own.

Yellows suggested a few when we first opened but Cody & I always actively sought, selected, watched members & then invited them.

Yes. Only Cody & I decided who makes it in, however we have a group of Senior Members that we turn to for their opinion (especially if we have prior knowledge that they know each other well) on someone before actually deciding if they're suitable for 143.

(Aug 23, 2013 05:12 AM)Connected Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Well, your signature turns me off big time.

Daisy I had a PM sent to you but you never read it so I canceled it. ?
I was gone for a month & way behind on pm's.

Actually avoiding them now cos I sit here all day chatting & neglect doing anything else. xD

Well I've answered a few questions but I'll explain my actual purpose of making another Official Thread.

1. All group SHOULD have one to answer questions, get to know ppl & meet potential members.
2. 143 has come across a very rough patch.

It is w/a very sad heart that I post here right now.
As our 1 year anniversary comes upon us (& we should be celebrating & just have a wild time) that's not the case.

We've had a lot go on w/us personally as a group family. So I've decided that we need to make positive changes & get 143 out of the rut we're in or disband completely & close our doors.

Initially my vision for 143 was a group for...

1. giveaways ofc (cos that's what I like to do)
2. offer emotional help.

I suffer silently w/many issues & even though I'm not a therapist, doctor nor medical expert, I do have life skills & real issues & I KNOW that just having someone there to talk to, listen to you, help you, advise, can make a HELL of a difference.

I LOVE helping others.

3. Offer advice on sex/relationship related topics. (i.e. sexuality) That may sound odd but since my very FIRST day on Hf ppl have always pm'ed me asking for advice on this very subject. I used to ONLY post in the Innuendo Sect. offering real help.

4. I wanted a group that moved at Rhythm's past. Fast, fun lounges (that abided by forum rules, ofc) but I'm a very chatty person & to me the lounges are the heart of the group. You get to know one another, help each other, talk, laugh & have fun.

Cody was opposed to adding too many ppl for fear it would become LQ. (but idk. I thought it would make it fun tbh. Lol)

So here we are. At a stalemate. 143 has broken down emotionally. We're drained. We've always help the community. Now I'm reaching out to y'all for help.

I'm not ashamed. I'm human.

I love 143. I love all the ppl I've met because of it.

I love the friendships (yes. Friends. I've met AWESOME ppl)

I cry (yes cry - say you haven't cried cos of an online issue. Oh well. You aren't me) at the thought of losing it all. But when something hurts you more than it helps you, you have to know when to walk away.

But I'm also not willing to walk away so quickly (despite my lengthy absences) so here I am.

We either get it together or we close out doors.

I'm on my iPhone (as always) & my thoughts are always faster than my fingers. I'm gonna hit post now for fear I'm muddling my thoughts up.

I'll answer any questions y'all's I have pertaining to 143.

I may not answer them right away but I will eventually. We all will. So ask away.

I'd rather we answer questions then y'all listen to the rumors going about.

Kotei - August 23, 2013, 9:27 am

Pretty much all of these apply to who I am, I suppose that's why I've always been intrigued by you here.

You need to do what is best for yourself and to make sure you are well above all.

He can often come off as a prick on HF nowadays, but he's a fantastic fellow that mirrors my integrity and emotional depth (albeit he loves anime and some maaaaay say disconnected with certain aspects of the norms).

He recognized me as a young member here and gave me a chance at an early stage here.

There are very few people that I could say warrant my trust here and he is one of them.

I say this because he messaged me the other day about speaking out against some of the things about 143, leave that to the cynic side that we both have when it comes to this place.

He's a sweetheart and passionate and been through a lot here.

Anyways, I'll step off of my Xypher loving pedestal now. o.o

We invite you.

We actively recruit our members.

What that simply means is we see someone that catches our eye somehow. & we watch them. Cody is like a detective. He looks into their profile & sees what they're like. (make sure that whatever it was that caught our eye wasn't just an instance) He looks at all their threads/posts/feedback. (we don't interact w/them until we've really "studied" them awhile) A few ppl we watch/read for months. (our sub is full of personal things so blending well w/everyone is important)

& lastly if we know that one of our Senior Mems knows them better we will seek their insight as well.

You L U HHH me.

Linking this here since I've gotten a few messages either asking if giveaways is "all we do?"
Or saying "do y'all do anything other than giveaways, what a waste leeleeeel"

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3625110&pid=33985063#pid33985063>

I'll say it 100 times over.

That's what 143 was purchased for. That's all I wanted.
A group that had awesome lounges, upgraded ppl, did giveaways, helped those who needed help w/life situations & to provide a good/understanding atmosphere.

I could kick all members keep the name 143 & make it a group about the Pokemon Snorlax & that STILL shouldn't be a big deal.

When one buys a groups they can make it about anything they please (as long as no forum rules are broken) & it shouldn't matter to anyone as it was the buyers money spent, blown, wasted however y'all wanna put it.

Those who feel I wasted my money make me laugh tbh.
I didn't ask for a dime from any of you to purchase it so I don't see how what 143 does affects/hurts/bothers you so much.

Get over yourselves.

To everyone posting that this group is great and that you would love an invite or something similar im tired of it.

Coming from a former 143 member ill let you guys know for sure that you won't be invited with that that asskissing attitude. I suggest you guys stop seriously.

- I learned that the hard way :(, because of the same thing you guys are doing, I was invited around 2 - 4 months later then what was really scheduled.

If you do not believe me, I can gladly have Cody, Daisy, Or Yellows post here conforming that saying I would love an invite etc. wont get you anywhere close.

Now, this is a story all about how 143 got flipped-turned upside down
And I liked to take a minute
Just sit right there and i'll tell how you 143 got messed up

On HF born and raised
On the forumis where I spent most of my days
Chillin' out maxin' relaxin' all cool
And all the drama shootin on the forum
When a couple of 143 members
Who were up to change the group
Startin making trouble on my forum
I got in one little fight online and my addy got scared
Daisy said "We're changing the group to be 18+ and no more summerfags"

I begged and pleaded with her day after day
But she blocked me and sent me on my way to get a throat punch by Omni.
She gave me a kiss and then she gave me my ban hammer.
I put my troll face on and said, 'I might as well kick it'.

ub3r class, yo this is rly good trolling new summerfags who think they are anon shit
Is this what the people on HF are like?
Hmm this might be alright.
I whistled for the new 143 change
The license plate said 143 IS A 18+ GROUP
If anything I can say this cab is rare
BUT I THOUGHT FORGET IT. 143 IS A GOOD GROUP

I pulled up to the forum on internet explorer about 7 or 8
And I yelled to the daisy "WHY YOU GOTTA CHANGE THE GROUP?"
I looked at my l33t hacker buddies
I was finally there
To sit on my throne as the new leader of 143.

If you do things that stick out to leaders, make a good impact or name for yourself, help people, do something that gets you on the radar, you have a chance. You could just be an overall helpful member that likes to post a lot, who knows?

Invite only groups are used because not all leaders like to post recruitment and just wait for people to apply. They want to scout out their members and see what makes them worthy of joining over days, weeks, months, who knows?

I was a nobody when I joined 143, and I wasn't even Ub3r yet. Everyone has a fair chance.

You just get randomly invited if they feel you are what they're looking for in a 143 member. The leaders aren't going to make it's criteria public.

I want to start a help desk in the Innuendo section with a few members as the ones I do alone don't get many questions, if any of you 143 members would like to aid me in starting a team for the thread then that would be great, the reason I'm asking 143 members is because of a fairly popular help desk that was operated by you guys a while back, feel free to PM me, I've already invited a few well known and helpful members in within the Innuendo section.

1.) you can't force a family, you gotta be as honest and upfront as possible. asskissing and mindlessly loving each other is fucking stupid. if a bitch nigga is trifling, let him know. if he overreacts, he's not family and can suck your cock

2.) never give a fuck unless it's serious, you should have no fucks to spare. possibly like half a shit to spare, 2 craps to spare, and 5 damns to spare. poops can be giving freely

3.) be a leader, not a boss

Just the idea of helping others is heart warming itself.

I have always looked up to members of 143.

Rest assured, that we the members of 143 will never let it change, we might go through problems (the huge decrease of presence) like any group but, as long as everybody stays strong and continues with the spirit of giving, 143 will be there. This is not a group, it's a ideology.

I'm glad to hear it will never change. I honestly think even if there is a huge decrease of presence. As long as the spirit of giving is still going on. And there are those couple members that stay contributing to the community. 143 and it's members will remain the most unique group here in my opinion.

What charity are you donating to? I'd definitely like to throw in a donation as a pay it forward deal. Recently, I had lost my job, and a person from our local church took it upon herself to hold a fundraiser for myself and my family without us knowing. To the members giving advice on how to join 143, I will be as not direct as possible.

You cannot give advice on a group that you are not a member of and have never been a part of, I appreciate the help you are trying to give to the lost members but, how can you give advice on something you have not done? It's like me going out and give advice on how to perform heart surgery without having a clue on how to do it.

Another thing: We are NOT required to do any giveaways, tutorials or anything. Nothing is obligated, there are members that have never done a giveaway that are part of the 143 family. The way we invite members is unknown to even the members, so you cannot tell others that giveaways are a important part of joining or tutorials. That is false, and an assumption of bad taste.

Merry Christmas.

Cody left the group due to personal reasons that will not be discussed.

As for the second question, that's not able to be answered. When I was invited to 143 back in April, I was not expecting an invite. It came out of nowhere.

I can't speak for This forum in particular, but that DOES seem to be the case on most others. I've Gotten into multiple groups before on other forums by posting every now and then on the groups official thread.

Otherwise, you will most likely go unseen like the vast majority of members.

Other than that, I do have to say this does seem like quite the group from what I've heard and researched.

Hopefully one day I can work my way into the group.

Doesn't this group take a toll on the members, though? (Implying you guys do emotional support.)

I know if I was involved with something like this eventually I'd start breakdown....

What kind of people do you specifically invite? People that are literate with computing in more of a white hat way or people great with monetizing and black hat as well?

It's a simple joke, before I was invited people made fun of me called me an asskisser etc. etc., at that time I felt offended but as time passed on so did this I now find it a joke nothing more ?

I am no longer related to the group, just the members, therefore all posts are under me not 143.

The best and only tip I'd give for getting into 143 is really quite simple, just don't try to get into 143 at all. I say this because, we know which users are purposefully going out of their way to help, and do this consistently, just because they want to help. They're who we consider as members. The people that help when nobody is watching. Conversely, we know who the users are who are just helping out and holding giveaways to get that special invite. They will never get the invite. So just be yourself, help out where you can, and maybe you'll get that special PM ?.

Please read The Conjurer's post:

I say this because, we know which users are purposefully going out of their way to help, and do this consistently, just because they want to help. They're who we consider as members. The people that help when nobody is watching. Conversely, we know who the users are who are just helping out and holding giveaways to get that special invite. They will never get the invite. So just be yourself, help out where you can, and maybe you'll get that special PM ?.

Almost like Christmas, getting a present from a friend, you should also consider giving them something as well, if you don't your just another selfish person.

Its far from like Christmas. It's true selflessness, so to speak. The only ones who truly know what their process is is their leaders.

You think this is the only design? I'm trying to make designs for almost all of the groups, 143 was the first because the designs for their products are very simple and yet professional, I thought to make one myself, with a concept of an SMS bomber, and the colors were very attractive, so why not make one for 143? Get an invite, great! No invite, then that is fine, move on. Yeah I know this group doesnt invite people for doing free shit, if they were to do that, 143 would be a massive group, not the point. If you believe that, then fine believe it. Have a good day sir!

143 is a wonderful with some of the most kindest members on this forum and Great Group Heads... I would like to join this group as I can help people to get ranked on Google. As I am already working as an SEO/SEM/SMO freelancer... And worked with Two brands as well...

If it is possible for you to accept my invitation... I would be highly grateful to you... I will be looking forward for your reply soon...

Thanks anyways...

How are members accepted. I know it is invite only, but is it only from those proven from a leader?

It's like asking how l33ts get approved for ub3r. No one knows besides the ones on the other side, although I think they made it clear not too try to hard to help.

I think I know how. Well I think I have an idea on the process that you'll go through if invited.

If you think you know how, it will go completely opposite of what you thought before.

I highly doubt that you know how our groups invitation process works. Did we even say we had a process? That's left to be unsaid. What ever you may know or not know, please don't post about it here. We do not want those who are interested in the group trying to do something that will only push them further away from the group because of your "advice".

To those of you who have questions regarding 143, please make sure that if you receive an answer from a member on HF, that they are in 143. You do not want false information regarding the group.

Doubts and misunderstandings are for those that doesn't know. You didn't have to publicly say, "143 has a process." But, logically everything requires a process. I won't "post" about it but, if someone were to ask, it won't be right for me to lie. And besides, I made it clear that it may not be right by saying "I think I know." So relax, calm down, chill out. If I'm wrong then your right, and if I'm right then the world keeps on spinning. ?
