Thread: [\[Source\] Small RAT \[New way\]](#)

The-One - April 17, 2010, 5:57 am

Hello people,

I saw this source on another site, and it gave me an idea. So I made this.

It is not really a RAT. but you can send commands, which the listener (infected person's) computer executes.

Included:Source: Listen

Source: Sender

Things added to Listen Source:Remote download file & execute

Remote UDP flood

Remote HTTP flood

Changing URL(Which it get its command(s) from)

Things needed:Visual basic 2008 (Duh?)

Webhost

Download

Virus scan + Buildded .exe \(From listen/sender\) included

I used some codes I found on this website, credits to their codes, feel free to get anything out of the source.

Very nice post man , thanks

Krisler12 - April 17, 2010, 6:27 am where is the download link ? you 've posted just a scan linkbut you 've forgote to post a download link.

Thanks !

The method of sending/receiving data is more like those of a botnet.

Learn4Life - April 17, 2010, 11:26 am

Thank you, I'm looking at the source now.

It doesn't matter, he included the source, don't run any binaries included if your scared of a virus.

link not working upload it on mediafire.com

DrecliN - April 18, 2010, 12:02 pm

Thank's for the share ?.

Nice... Thanks dude

GoldStar - April 18, 2010, 12:34 pm

some of the code are too long, it's a bit shitty, timer is useless, but not bad for beginners.

codepoet - April 30, 2010, 2:39 pm

very nice upload...i will study it

Mark Webber's B1tch - April 30, 2010, 3:24 pm

Seems nice.

Thanks for sharing mate.
