Thread: Scammed by uid=945933 \$40 total.

?Starfire? - August 29, 2013, 7:32 am

So, I was scammed by this guy Traphik a couple months back when I was a noob, Didn't know how to open a scam report or any of the likes, So I said whatever forgive and forget. But looks like he's at it again!

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3722413>

(Its $40 dollars because I payed him 10 15 for the time and 15 for a character transfer)

Selling the same account he sold me then took back :) So I thought that I would make sure no one gets scammed by him again as I doubt he has given up his scamming ways.

Well thanks for reading! :) I know its a bit more of a word against word, if it helps to make my word mean a bit more against he does have a -10 from Omni for having 7 accounts. ;_; (No idea why I thought it would be a good idea to deal with him but of course, I was a noob at the time.

Good luck with this scam report, I saw you making a thread earlier debating whether to make a scam report or not. I think you made the right decision.

So since I didn't message you about it it's okay that you took it back? Lol. I didn't give a shit it was 40 dolllars. But to some people that's quite a lot money and would hate to see them scammed by you too :) I don't want any money back, as said just a warning to the community that you are in fact a scammer.

Its also not a different account I leveled the character up to 90 myself you asshat. I can't believe you have to nerve to deny it now.

I have the proof I bought it from you and your selling the same account now proving that you took it back obviously.

So your saying it would have been impossible for you to level another character on the account after you took it back? And I showed proof of the level 90 mage while it was being transferred. Unfortunately I didn't have to much time after that to get more screenshots because it was stolen now did I?

I would have no motivation to make a false scam report, As said I don't want the money I just want the community to know that you are a scammer.
