Group Marketplace

Members of Illuminati will firstly have allowance to post sales threads in our SMF which receives hundreds of visitors each day, both from the hundreds of participants in our signature contests, but also simply from the users browsing the marketplace.

Read more about the benefits below.

Userbar

More importantly the members will have access to our userbar, which'll show the potential customers that you're a real businessman.

Benefits

Tired of not getting any views on your sales threads?

With our 1000 USD contest we've got hundreds of people wearing our signature, which is linking directly to our SMF; all these signatures not only direct hundred of interested members to our sales threads each day.

Tired of having trolls or sales thrashers ruin your thread?

Since I'm the moderator of the SMF, I can junk any post I would like to; simply notify me if someone is trying to ruin your sales and I'll junk the posts.

Tired of competing with hundreds of other sellers in another section?

Only members of Illuminati can post in our section and most members don't sell any similar products which mean your thread will get noticed by your potential customers.

Tired of having people not trust you with deals?

The userbar will make you appear trustworthy and legitimate. A scammer wouldn't buy into a group to pull off some minor scam, only to get kicked from the group. People will trust you more when it comes to deals and partnerships.

Tired of wasting money?

Do you spend money on keeping a service running which is slowly dying despite you having paid for stickies in various sections?

In order to join Illuminati you'll have to pay a membership fee, but with the reputation and everything listed above, you should be able to boost your sales tremendously, thus earning the fee back in a matter of days.

Member Rights

As a member of Illuminati you'll have:

» access to our subforum where partnerships are formed, ideas shared and monetization techniques taught.

» the userbar freely available, which'll function as a label of trustworthiness and gentlemanship.

» allowance to post sales threads within our SMF in the marketplace.

Membership Fee

There's a monthly membership fee to cover the costs of our SMF, the 1000 contests along with stickies.

I've denied dozens of applicants; just because you want to pay doesn't mean I'll accept you.

The membership fee is 100 USD paid in BTC.

I agree with what you've done as they have to give back being in a marketing group.

Antigen - September 1, 2013, 8:47 am

It's good to see Illuminati changing under Anon's leadership, I'm sure HF Market will be delighted to have new Illuminati, I'll be looking to joining soon. best wishes for your new venture and good luck.

$1000 Contest ? wow ain't that the biggest contest on HF till now ?

Goodies - September 1, 2013, 9:02 am

It may be a steep change, but the Illuminati are the rich and powerful, so tbh, this kind of makes sense xD and I'm surprised it hasn't been done sooner.

It's great motivation to give back to the community that's given us so much :D

~ Goodies ?

Understalker - September 1, 2013, 9:05 am

Good luck with the group, the $1000 contests which will be hosted monthly will definitely bring more attention to the group. Once again, best of luck. :)

Tiki - September 1, 2013, 9:09 am

I really like how you made the requirements to join so high, that way all of the people buying in for the userbar will have a much tougher time.

Looks good Anon :)

Wow i think that this will greatly benefit the group! I was going to apply for Illuminati but i think it just got 10 times harder!

Damdomy - September 1, 2013, 10:15 am

I agree with what you did. Marketing groups should be paid. If marketers want to get in, they'll have to prove they have some money and that they are willing to give back to the community.

Muscles Glasses - September 1, 2013, 10:36 am

This is a great idea, I've previously read over Illuminati recruitment before I joined Legion and even with my $200/250 p/w earnings I still didn't think I was good enough to apply to a "marketing group". Groups like this should be high earners and people who can make money out of almost anything and everything, this will limit the "temporary" successful e-book sellers from joining and claiming they make over $1000 p/w or something ridiculous like that.

Great idea and I wish the group all the best, if I cross my $1000 mark then I'll certainly look into purchasing membership.

CRT - September 1, 2013, 10:43 am

Change is always a good thing imo, keeps things fresh. ?

This $1k monthly contest though, wow ?

GL man!

w?rlokt - September 1, 2013, 11:19 am

Very nice changes Anonymous! I can truly understand that you are tired of fake-businessmen that are trying to seem HQ.

I hope the wall in form of a 100 USD payment will stop them.

Good luck with the group, I know it will get a good one, as I really love your form of leadership!

Im gone brah - September 1, 2013, 11:25 am

This is a good contribution for the forum. It was a long while ago it was a group like this. Also it's a few in illuminati that actually is making money. But i know prime and he's legit.

Om?nous - September 1, 2013, 12:11 pm

Well i am in the process of setting up gaming server hosting with vps and webspace to all be sold and advertised on hf so hopefully i will be able to buy in at some point.

Mahdy - September 1, 2013, 1:01 pm

Things like this is what the community needs. That giveaway seems un real.

Would you like some headtitles done to make the thread look a little better?

BeggFoMercy - September 1, 2013, 2:11 pm

I don't get it fully lol But It seems to be some epic Idea , Good luck with it ;) .

Marwix - September 1, 2013, 2:16 pm

Social Engineer - September 1, 2013, 2:23 pm

This looks perfect. I love the whole idea about giving back to the community. Truly living up to the name of being rich and powerful.

rfz777 - September 1, 2013, 2:50 pm

Nice changes you're offering to Illuminati! I'd pay the $100 to be honest, if the requirement wasn't 200 rep and 2k posts XD. I hope to gain the amount of rep and post count before it's too late!

Lukas - September 1, 2013, 3:19 pm

May consider buying a spot in this. I agree with your decision, best of luck to you and Illuminati. I've done quite a few giveaways over the time just giving away the money I had left over from buying whatever from my marketing money.

Do you think there will be any alternative ways of getting accepted into Illuminati, such as being invited or something of that sort?

-Cheers

Bag - September 1, 2013, 3:23 pm

Wow I think this is a great idea to be honest,
I aspire to be apart of the illuminati club one day, and I feel these changes will make it truly a prestigious and meaningful place.

oz@bsd - September 1, 2013, 3:38 pm

I'm more excited for the change. Originally it was thought about how the quality of the group is incredible, with great tutorials and knowledge, then I see the people w/ the userbar just lounge whoring and trolling. It was some kindof joke >.<

Ryan?? - September 1, 2013, 3:56 pm

Good luck with the changes, good luck with the new Illuminati!

NoodleBot™ - September 1, 2013, 4:01 pm

Definitely will be considering purchasing a spot. The group has always been for the best of marketing so it seems quite logical to have a down payment or investment of some sort.

You give and you get back

En1gma - September 1, 2013, 4:55 pm

Sounds great, good luck with the changes.

muzzy. - September 1, 2013, 5:00 pm

Looking forward to these changes. Illuminati is the dream group for any established marketer on this board, and hopefully those marketers will get a shot now.

Good luck Anonymous!

Mastery - September 1, 2013, 5:09 pm

Seems like a great idea.. I wouldn't consider this as a buy-in group. Its a marketing group, so to prove that the members are making money, they must show it by paying.

Terry A. Davis - September 1, 2013, 9:45 pm

I can't help but agree with all the changes.

It will spark activity, make HF once again look up to Illuminati.

Good job Anonymous.

Not sarcasm at all.

Sure, there is a lot more to a forum...

You are not spamming just because you are making posts'.

Make sure they are quality and you won't be "spamming" anything.

Yep, the subforum is completely dead after Anonymous junked every valuable thread in it .. Like completely.

And there aren't any projects at all. The group needs some better leadership.

Being in the group for the last couple months was actually boring as there was nothing to post/read at all.

Well that's not really the case. After he junked all the threads and got me 1000 posts in the junk section, we were still in the group, and we were thrown stacks of projects, useless projects, let me mention. And this was all for the title we held for over a year until the group was bought and ruined. I know what's worth the money and this isn't. This just seems similar to Black Diamond's shitty plan where you pay monthly.

Agreed. I was invited from the very start when Bellagio PM'd me asking if I wanted to join. At first the group was decent then month after month the group turned to shit. We were given bunch of useless 'projects' to do. It went something like this:

NEW PROJECT!

FIND 5 GROUP MEMBERS!

MAKE ALL MEMBERS GO ONLINE AT THE SAME TIME WITH DIFFERENT TIME ZONES

TURN IN HALF-ASSED 'PROJECT'

REPEAT SAME EXACT PROJECT IN TWO WEEKS

If you think someone isn't making money, just don't accept them. You've done this earlier when you removed everyone. By this you're just questioning your own abilities to pick quality members.

I'm not hating, because I could've had hated when you cleared the subforum to zero threads or when you removed everyone. After all it's your group. I cared about this group and it was never expected to do something like this.

Tldr; An advice. These members who will be in for a month by paying $100 won't make a group.

No. I was in the group from the beginning and I can tell you the group was alive for more than a month actually. Untill shit went down and Group was going to be sold, a lot of original members left. Bugga was essentially the one who made it what it is. With her gone, group turned to shit.

I honestly believe this plan will work considering the fact that if you're a true money earner $100/M shouldn't be much due to the fact that the money will be put in to giving back to the community. Along with that, you will be able to learn new things from fellow group members.

I personally do believe the group will work out.

Nickelodeon - September 3, 2013, 2:00 pm

The thing is, I don't think members would like to pay $100 per month just to stay in the group, even if they make a good amount of money online. To be honest, it's not worth it. After all, it's just a group. I'm talking out of experience, there is no group that will help you to make more money online. I've been in Illuminati, everyone said woah it's a great marketing group blah blah, but it didn't help me to make more money online. But let's see how it goes. Good luck though :P It's a good experiment.

I must say I'm kind of disappointed in the way it's become, You're now selling group spots :/. Illuminati was the first ever invite only group and I was hoping that it would of stayed but good luck.

Skiezo™ - September 3, 2013, 3:13 pm

That's such a weird way of thinking. People are selling products to get money and that's how it works, It's not like "They are earning from the forums anyway" does that mean WE HAVE to give away money to the community? Obviously it's a great contribution but that doesn't make sense at all because you are the one who works for your product.

And besides "They are earning from the forums anyway" WE have to make sure that we keep our customers satisfied by Re-Fudding the Crypter every time (for example).

If people earn $10.000/mo a mere $100 is nothing. ?

(Sep 3, 2013 03:13 PM)Skiezo™ Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) That's such a weird way of thinking. People are selling products to get money and that's how it works, It's not like "They are earning from the forums anyway" does that mean WE HAVE to give away money to the community? Obviously it's a great contribution but that doesn't make sense at all because you are the one who works for your product.

And besides "They are earning from the forums anyway" WE have to make sure that we keep our customers satisfied by Re-Fudding the Crypter every time (for example).

No one says that you have to do anything at all?

For the businessmen out there, it's not like you're just throwing away money; you pay hundreds of dollars for awards? You pay hundreds of dollars for stickies?

This is $100/mo and you'll get your threads in our SMF which gets thousands of visitors who're all potential buyers which click our SMF-signature.

Only $500 of that $1,500 a month is profit as the other $1000 goes to the $1000 Contest - still as you said a nice investment.

I didn't say pocket your fee's.

It is weather you agree your not profit - if we wanted we could say the whole $1,500 is profit because it is, even though he does $1000 contests - I wasn't saying anything bad about it.

And you may call it pocketing, I'm sure Anonymous wouldn't refer to it as that - as he needs to pay for the sub-forum, stickies ect. ?

Business - September 12, 2013, 9:59 pm

I am saying that he does not keep ANY of our money. All the money he takes from our fees goes directly back to the community. None of it is profit.

Budget

$1000 - Contest

$200 - Lounge sticky

$250 - SMF

That leaves 50 USD if 15 members paid $100, though I haven't even found 15 members I would allow into the group - I've denied a dozen applicants already. In addition we may be hosting awards and upgrade contests which'll be paid for by the Illuminati group members as well as myself.

If I charged 500 USD per member I would profit greatly, but that's not the purpose of this membership fee, thus meaning I won't charge this amount - I'll charge members so that the money can flow naturally without me having to pay for all the expenses.

Are you a fan of the rapper Drake? Have you heard of his song Wildfire?

"Get alot of money you could never get enough." - Drake

The quote above annotates, "No matter how much money you have , it will be never enough," which is true. People have different limits, including personal goals and aspirations. Once you reach a certain mark, you will realize that money is just paper and that true happiness (it is just a state of being) lies within. Some people spend their whole lifes trying to get wealthier and wealthier.

Most people in America are raised to go to college, get a job, and get paid. Then, they teach their own kids to do the same. When that happens, people cannot express themselves and do what they want. By doing so, you would die without leaving a mark in someone else's life or feel fulfilled in your own. I hope you understand where I am coming from, but that is just my philosophy. Do what makes you happy! I am interested in the experience, nothing else.

I don't even think you can call this a marketing group tbh anyone that has pocket change can get in.

Marketers v2

I highly doubt most people consider 150 dollars a month pocket change. It may not seem like much but it's not being spent on a car payment or for bills, it to be in a group on a website. That and Anon has set requirements that need not be over looked.

Delevingne - December 5, 2013, 7:14 am

I would love to join, but paying $150 a month is something I don't wanna do.

For my ago, it is pretty much. I have no job and make all my money online.

Maby when I earn more every month, I will join, but for now I will be a silent money maker.

Nevertheless, Illuminati is a quality group with nice members.

Everyday I try to find new money-making-methods, and some of them I sell or give to friends.

But I'm 15 years-old, and save almost all my money for later. :P

Well,

Good luck with Illuminati. :)

Vince - December 5, 2013, 7:30 am

Any group run by Anon is top notch. If I was an expert marketer and was able to afford the extra monthly expense, I'd definitely try to join the group. Awesome thing you guys are doing.

Sigma - December 5, 2013, 7:49 am

No matter how much money I make, I would not ever pay that money a month to be in this group.

Even making a nice sum of money a month, $150 a month for a userbar is a bit absurd.

I understand you are trying to profit and make this group seem "powerful"...however, charging such a fee is a bit overboard.

Best of luck.

The group has 10 members right now, which is the highest it has been.

$$150 \times 10 = 1,500$$

$$1,500 - 1,000 \text{ (contest)} = 500$$

$$500 - 300 \text{ (SMF)} = 200$$

The remaining balance goes towards stickies, etc.

The whole time I've been in the group I've paid around 150, which means Anon has been footing part of the contest and SMF bill, which he isn't inclined to do.

I requested the winner's name multiple times, but he postponed it each and every time.

He ended up getting removed from the group as he didn't want to pay the fee and then Omni took action as he hosted an unresolved contest - closed thread with the promise that he would announce the winner soon, but never did.

Illuminati is no longer solely focused on marketing. Group description changed to:

"Illuminati is a group of individuals who've proved their worth and power to the forum."

Illuminati is now both a buy-in and invitation group; HF veterans will be invited into the group while marketers can buy-in and get exclusive access to the SMF.

We'll have a member cap, yes.

First off, I don't see why there has to be an advantage?
However they're invited into the group to bond with other people, thus expanding their network and influence. In addition, they can establish partnerships and just enjoy the userbar.

I can tell you right now, this group is fucking high quality. Since I've been a part of this forum this is only one of few groups that have remained the same and not changed to another theme. This user is the real deal and he knows what he's doing when it comes to running a group. Remaining the group at 15 members just states and proves its a high quality private group. Once in you will feel honoured and privileged you're a part of such a elite group.

I won't release any information and it doesn't make any difference, but ask yourself, are you a HF Veteran?

I'd consider myself a veteran, I wouldn't say I'm too the standards of being accepted yet, but maybe one day... I'm all for spending money, but I can't justify $100 a month.

420 Blaze It - June 19, 2014, 1:21 am

$150 USD BTC a month. This thread is old.

Veterans are like 'old'. 'Older' than you.

One day you will...Before the New Order will come.

I feel like the definition of "Veterans" for this group means people who are "known", not necessarily old fags.

Not necessarily people who are "known" or "popular". Some of the people are those who contribute to the site with little to no return as well.

I agree, and I was referring to that as well.
I have no return from HF (at the moment at least), but would consider myself known for my constant participation and assistance I provided in the VB.NET and other coding sub-forums.
Wasn't referring just to people who are known in the making money aspect of HF.

Thought so, that explains why some users with a lot of reputation (aka just popular) users aren't invited/not in Illuminati.

I look at everything when sending invites:

Username, avatar, reputation, post count, registration date, awards, post quality, groups and their brand/image.

I would love to join this group, however that being said I would only be good for organizing events and creating Illuminati brand ideas, I'm a creative person but have never really got around to starting up a product line. Seems like a fun group to join however, hope all goes well haha!

Regards.
