Last Attack on Titan Episode to Screen in Japanese Theatres

Shingeki no Kyojin, what a marvelous anime it truly is. Killing off main characters? No problem, Shingeki has it all. The producers of Shingeki no Kyojin have announced a date for the last episode of Shingeki no Kyojin will be put up on the big screen at Marunouchi Picadilly 1 theatre in Tokyo during a special event on September 28. The producer and many voice actors will be attending the event to answer any questions that anyone has. The event will be streamed throughout theatres in Japan.

The Witch and the Hundred Knight Heads West in Early 2014

NIS America has confirmed that The Witch and The Hundred Knight will be released for the PlayStation 3 in North America and Europe in early 2014.

Story Description:

Fed up with being unable to travel beyond the borders of her swamp, the witch Metallia (voiced by Mariya Ise) forges a contract with the legendary Hundred Knight to help her realize her ambition of spreading her swamp throughout all of Medea. As the Hundred Knight, your mission is to do whatever your master, the Swamp Witch, commands. Explore the world, destroy Pillars built to prevent her swamp from spreading, and wreak indiscriminate havoc. However, in the back of your inhuman mind, you begin to wonder... What prevents Metallia from leaving the swamp? Why do the other witches shun her, and how can she survive in a swamp that is notorious for how poisonous its fumes are? Is Metallia really a witch to respect, or is she one to fear?
