OLD THREAD, READ THIS TOO!

My SECOND account that got banned, got banned for being for sale, and I did star out a letter. @Stove, banned. Fuck me. Employees are to smart or either to stupid, they could have easily just banned the wrong account.

I encourage you to ONLY GIVE YOUR USERNAME TO TRUSTED MEMBERS, don't even put the Instagram in the fucking thread.

Sorry for the cursing, I now am out a few bucks and have no way of making it up. I just bought Ub3r so I have less money then I would have, and my dog chewed up my retainers today so I am short a few hundred.

Then ask them to private message you for the username, still stared out. Star out even 2 letters, trusted members only.

Sucks that instagram is banning perfectly good names.

Ah man.. I'm so sorry this happened. I was trying to be so careful with who I told. Do you have a screenshot of the notification that the account was banned for being sold?

Also, I'm gonna see if I can get it Un-banned for you. I have a way of doing so. (:

EDIT: I sent you a new IG as a replacement. It is worth the same value. (:
