Please read the Help Docs here
Also google around to find it, you'll be able to find it fast.

I was kidding. It was implying the tutorial on searching on the forum.

If you want to get into "hacking", I'd advise learning some languages first. Later, moving onto actual attack methods, etc.

i already have basic knowledge sir

like html javs script php and mysql

i use to make my website in local using xampp

.But i want to learn more more in hacking..

because i can't afford go to school

i choose here in HF to learn..

Just guide me master

I can be your apprentice

I will do some stuff like you want me to advertise these.

and etc.

I just to learn and this is the only thing I can pay you..
