Thread: [\[Tutorial\] How to make a green anime signature! \[Tutorial\]](#)

jiimmyh - September 5, 2013, 3:22 pm

Hello guys. i've made a signature. and i felt like it was cool enough to be given a tutorial. ?
sit back. and enjoy.?

Note: this is my first tutorial, so please tell me if i should change something.

Skill level: beginner requirements: photoshop, and some image stocks.

1. Start of by making a new project. it's gonna be 400x250.
  2. add a nice picture of a forest.
  3. add a anime character. and erase the sharp from it. just too make it look smoother.
  4. Add a Flare Image, that has a black background, then change filter to Cover.
- tip: add some more flares.
5. Add a C4D objects under your character layer, and place it behind the character.
  6. add a light leak.

now it should look something like this.

now add a text, and a serperation line.
and you're done!

do not rip or leak this tutorial somewhere else.?

Was this tutorial helpful? Reply with a "thanks"! PM me for further questions.

Agreed you should show more how to do it and not just say, "Do that *shows result*".

You need to show how to "Do that".

Not really easy for beginners to follow, especially finding the right tools and settings for it.

Its cool , but its difficult for us , please if you have free time so write it in depth .

Thanks

Nice tutorial, but there is no way in hell that PS noobs are going to be able to follow this.

I know many people have said it now, and sorry for all your thread replies to seem like a broken record, but maybe you should take the advice you are being given.

It not helpful to me.

But I help me a lot .

Thanks. :)
