Thread: Blackshades Net or Blackshades Stealth

ongbak430 - September 8, 2013, 3:37 am

Before you all go off at me i just wanna say ive done my research on both of these products on HF and the site but they both look good but idk which to buy. I need your opions. I obviously wanna hack computers and steal passwords so which one would yous reccomend me? thanks

Blackshades RAT Is now Blackshades NET.

Net is better at RATting at the moment.

ongbak430 - September 8, 2013, 3:39 am

alright thanks alot but are you sure its the better one? because i wanna steal passwords etc

Chill Bra - September 8, 2013, 3:45 am

Yes, You can keylog them etc etc.

I recommend it.

Blackshades Net is the way to go in my opinion.

I'd definitely recommend net over stealth

SilverDragon24 - September 30, 2013, 5:43 am

I love NET and Stealth. Got them both from the package.

Stealth is faster and more stable, but sometimes keeps me in love in NET. I think it's due to it's wide range or nice features.

BlackShades NET has more features.

BlackShades Stealth is more stable.

Now is it to you to choose.

Stealth is supposedly more stable, so I'd choose stability over features. If Anything you could code your own tools that do the same as what the extra features of NET does...

cmoore627 - September 30, 2013, 9:22 am

Not sure if this is true, but ive been told blackshades used to rat and bot anyone who bought blackshades.

Meh there has always been speculation about this, not to sure if proof was provided. No matter what you do using tools for performing illicit actions you always run the risk of being infected, do you really think people will turn their nose up at a chance to earn money, get a good reputation AND a load of slaves from making a program, nope me neither.

I would recomend you to buy Blackshades NET ?

I agree! Both are a great way to go

I would go for Blackshades NET it has more features and the "fun" section is my most favorite. Where Blackshades Stealth only has so many features and zero of the fun features just a plain old rat.

i also would stick with NET. i like also to play with the fun manager and so on. it is also much easier to spread with NET.

I use bs stealth because the speed on it is very good. I dont need the fancy features, just the basic remote desktop/webcam/password :)
