I bought 500 likes from Hesco on the 4th of September, and when I asked him how long it would take, he said "allow it 1-3 days", and I was okay with it, when the 3rd day was about to finish, I just logged on Skype and reminded him that 3 days were about to finish, just so you know, he said "It will be done by today" with a smiley face.

That very night when the clock hit 00:00 I checked the likes and they were not increased at all. Not even a single one, really. I didn't sleep the whole night and thought this guy would actually deliver the likes.

Day 4, he never came online, and when the day was about to finish I sent him a PM saying "What's taking you so damn long" He said I was out for work (probably the worst/unoriginal excuse I've ever heard, even a 13 year old could have come up with something better than that, really) I just got pissed off and made a post on his thread that almost 5 days are about to finish and you haven't delivered the likes yet. To which he responded in a PM saying "Remove the post and I will start sending" (Wow, what a moron, couldn't he really see that I wasn't an upgraded member, really? REALLY? Are you that fucked in the head?

Well whatever he kept delaying everyday, even when 3 days were up. Obviously anyone wouldn't wait longer than promised, in my opinion three days are enough to deliver 500 likes, really. Every single day I asked him after 3 days were up, I only got a single message saying "They will be done by today" but not a single like was added, what a huge disappointment, really. Now the 6th day is about to finish and the likes are still not increased. It's not like I'm the only one to not receive the likes, there are three more people, or maybe even more, who knows. Do not deal with this member at any costs, wasted 6 days of my time, I was totally sleep deprived, although that's not relevant to the thread, I just feel like adding it. Thanks for reading and beware of this member, usually when I do deals if the service isn't delivered within the time promised every time the seller has apologized, not just did I not receive an apology, but all I got from him was a single line everyday saying "It will be done by today".

6 days are up and he's still making lame excuses. If you're serious about your business, and do not want to end up like I've did, then don't deal with this user at any costs.

Hesco is legit he's not a scammer. He's just a busy man. And remember he has also a life outside.

Hesco won't scam you for 5$ that's the first point

Second point i had the same problem with him but he apologized for the delay and sent the followers to me

I vouch for Hesco with MY personal experience with him.

Hesco is not a scammer. Just give him some time. & Your an idiot for thinking someone would scam $5 and ruin their brand/business.
