- Quality of information

Quality of information is good. It is not jampacked with information. Just the basic info and upto the point. Screenshot are there which will help it

- Layout

Just the clean layout. Nothing added, or nothing extra. Simple plain and it could have been better

- Ease of use

It is hard to say. It isn't very hard. You could probably get into a lot of money if you do it correctly. However once you have it setup, It's easy to do

- Originality.

I consider this eBook is original. No eBook found the same method which is described. Something new and unique. Would definitely recommend.

Hello I am Kanade Tachibana and i will be reviewing this eBook today. Keep in mind i am not affiliated with the seller in any way nor do i serve to gain anything for writing this review.

Quality 7/10

It seems to be everything you need. And its explained semi-thoroughly. Near the end you have to kind of know what hes talking about.

Ease of Use 8/10

So as stated he explained everything you need to do. But near the end it gets kind of hard to understand but i imagine it will become clear once you start.

Layout 7/10

Just plain black text on white like most eBooks.

Grammar 7/10

Not many mistakes. Its just the way its written in giving you a short sentence then a picture.

Originality 8/10

I have not seen a guide such as this on hackforums before.

Overall 7.5/10

It is a great eBook for someone looking to make money through stock. ALTHOUGH you do need a sizable investment before you can begin. I believe people should be told this before buying. As what you will be doing requires it. Anyways a good eBook.

You could probably get back your investment within an hour, you'll earn more money as you gain more experience and skill!

Do you have to be over a certain age?

Also, do you have to invest £250? Or can you just do £50 and work your way up?

XBatt - September 13, 2013, 9:07 am

There is no minimum age however I strongly suggest you using a verified paypal because they are going to get very suspicious when you get payments of over £1000. You could use your dads paypal if you must. The minimum investment is £250 but the ebook shows you how to get the £250!

I've seen close to 1000 payments from various paypal accounts; personal, business, charity.. And this is the first time I have ever seen payment for...

Really what it looks like is it's a photo-shopped proof and the OP dun messed up. Hopefully that isn't the case, because to try to convince people to spend $250 of their own money on something that likely will make them loose money is pretty fucked up.

hmm not sure, maybe it varies by the country origin of the paypal holder.. or it's just a different format cause I checked my paypal and it does say "payment for" when I sent money to a business one. Not sure which country your from but i'm from north america ?

markus333 - September 28, 2013, 9:31 pm

Yeah it's pretty strange.. Like for instance even OP's screenshot for the payment To.. isn't - 250 pounds... which would of been his "deposit".. Anyway, I think I'll wait for more people to show proof, other then the 1 dude that just joined and was banned.

XBatt - September 29, 2013, 3:33 am

If you really don't believe you can make money with my stock marketing ebook than it's your loss. The vouches arn't showing payment proof because they are practicing the method. If this was a bunch of bull shit then someone would of posted a bad review. Clearly not markus333 - September 29, 2013, 5:13 am

So waitt dude in the past two weeks. You went from spending the "last three months working hard" to make $50.. To making 5000 pounds in 2 days. And you are too busy with your studies to continue to make these thousands a day.

I mean this has to be a joke right?

Thank you ShareCash and HF!

3 months of hard work, worth it xD

This ain't no joke, I did not say I made £5000 in 2 days, your assumptions are ignorant. Nice rep, I see you're an ebook leecher,flaming in other threads and accuses people of being scammers.

Get out you troll

markus333 - September 29, 2013, 5:28 am

In your payment proof you "claim" your earnings are around £5000 .. In exactly two day

I am sorry it's just hella funny you are so thrilled about making $50 taking "3 months of hard work" just the other day and now claim to be making 1000's of pounds in a period of just a couple days and are "too busy to work on the method." It's just hilarious mate.

This money was withdrawn over 2 months work, with my busy schedule. I was thrilled with making $50 with PPD because it was an achievement for me, never thought I could do it.

Would you stop sales trashing my thread?
