Postial

<http://postial.com>

A forum for all topics. Looking to get back on its feet again after what felt like a very quiet summer. Stop on by and join the community.

We have discussions for nearly every topic, and if we don't have what you want, start it. If nothing else, stop by and advertise your own site.

If you can't change it here: <http://www.postial.com/usercp.php?action=options> just let me know your username there and I can change it for you. ?

Actually looks kind of decent, I signed up.

EDIT: <http://prntscr.com/1sf59w>

I can't see the text unless I highlight it, you should probably fix that.

I liked the old theme to the new one, the blue theme doesn't look very organised.

Our contest has 1 month left and there are no entries. You could refer 1 person that makes 5 posts and make $10. Sounds like an easy deal to me.

Great forum so far!

Really nice admin! I will be staying for awhile.

I've been managing this site for sometime, and it has a very decent base community. I run the Minecraft server, and enjoy doing so.

OP ed his thread to keep it alive...

Let's see how your site handles a ddos attack.

QuickMan - October 22, 2013, 3:53 pm

its not bad but some parts of the forum looks bugged out, like the color and especially the bottom of it looks weird.
