So if I use a canadian VPN, without a verified card, my account can't get limited anyway?

There is no trick. Just create the account and make sure it's a premier account. You will be able to send and receive money without a card. There is absolutely no trick, go to fakenamgenerator and get a Canadian address to use for the account, it's really is simple as that.

This.

Note that your account can become limited if you do not use it properly no matter what.

Step one: type in paypal.au into your browser

step two: make a new account with info from fakenamgenerator.com

step three: enjoy a australian paypal with a fuckton more funds than a canadian one

step four: fuck bitches

Step five: boil water

step six: eat ramen block

step seven: drink boiling water

step eight: snort flavor packet

step nine: fuck bitches

Do Australian accounts work just like Canadian?

You don't even need a VPN, I've had a Canadian for almost half a year now and the shit works fine on my US ip. Never had any problems.

If you intend to ear nearly or more than $100 then don't take risk & use amazon gift cards then have exchanges.
