Just compiling a list of movies that fall into this category.

If you have any additions, post below and I'll add them.

This list is for people searching for movies they haven't watched, and are interested in these type of movies.

Just check out the trailer, you may find something you may be interested in watching.

I watched the eagle, and I really enjoyed that one. I also watched the clash/wrath of the titans and both were decent, but what I expected.

Forgot about that movie.

I thought it was alright also, it had more potential though.

But it had an amazing soundtrack, couldn't of done any better there. (At least in my opinion)

I will go ahead and add it to the list.
