So does this work? Do I really have to change my IP all the time? :P It seems like a great method but not auto pilot. :(

If u dont want ur video to be bloacked because of the same ip views(Change the ip).

If u r not doing the views to make money with monetizing, doing for publicity make it run for three days with the same ip, u will get about 1,0000 views.

Try it with same ip?

I also want to see their youtube reaction.

Sorry for the late reply, I were banned for 3 days.

Turtle???? - February 21, 2014, 6:40 pm

@Xuna, how can I use the autopilot feature for this? Thanks in advance @OP as well for the method

Spank - February 21, 2014, 7:25 pm

Good method, thank you OP.

Although, it isn't autopilot..

el0hel - February 23, 2014, 2:13 pm

Stuck at 301+ views. Any idea when that number changes?

Double A - February 23, 2014, 2:41 pm

People if your stuck at 301 just wait. its not that fucking hard. But if its the same ip over and over it might never change. I suggest doing this method on videos that have gotten at least 500 LEGIT views.

nishu1990 - March 19, 2015, 7:56 am
