Thread: Most Advanced PPD Ebook? \(Not another shitty 'get rich quick cheap ebook'\)

Enforcement - September 22, 2013, 8:42 pm

Hi.

I am seriously considering making an Ebook.

This will be focused on Pay Per Download (PPD Sites - such as File Ice)

I would like some honest opinions on this.

Now I know what you are thinking "Oh great, another shitty 'Make fast easy money autopilot bullshit ebook'" - wrong!:))

The simple truth is, the Marketplace is full of cheap ebooks promising you can make hundreds a day on Autopilot with very little effort, and yet you get some of these selling for as low as 5$ a day, which really makes you wonder why they would sell such a good method for so little, if they make so much? It's all bullshit and the fact people still buy cheap ones like this expecting to get rich quick is beyond me. I won't deny some of them may of worked at one time, but the majority of the methods there are public or saturated, and the only person really profiting all this money is the seller.

I am considering creating an Ebook and selling it for around $120.

You may think - why so much? Many reasons...

- The amount of money that can be made back is tremendous.
- I only intend on selling very few limited copies.
- No one in their right mind would spend $120 and leak a method like these cheap shitty ones.

I will outline and admit some things here...

- This method is not a simple easy way for you to make money.
- It does require a small investment to setup ($15 should be good)
- You need to be motivated and dedicated. If this isn't you, don't bother.

The Ebook would have around 20 pages worth of content, and provide free lifetime updates for as long as I want to keep it running.

I will be offering free One-to-One support via AIM or Skype (Text only until I fix my laptops internal microphone sadly)

The Ebook will also contain private videos of methods and tutorials.

Each copy will be slightly edited so in the event of a leak, I know which user it came from.

It will demonstrate multiple methods to maximize your profits by using Social Media (and Networking) to your full ability.

I understand I'm new with little reputation, I will get vouches and reviews before selling. Phyber seems like a popular choice since I see his name everywhere.

Question is - Would you be interested?

I don't want to waste a couple of days making the most HQ method here if no one would buy it.

Sorry to say but, this is just another piece of shit.

You made the classic mistake every seller makes: " - The amount of money that can be made back is tremendous."

So apparently you can make loads of money with this ebook and you are selling it for $120 and only plan on selling a few copies. So lets say you sold 10 copies you would make $1200.

What's the point? If you really are as good at PPD as you claim then you could scale up your operation and make even more on autopilot. So to be honest you just sound like another scammer trying to sell public PPD methods.

Thanks for the reply.

I don't mind your criticism, I can take it and find it useful unlike other people who would just rage at you.

But yes, if you put the effort and dedication in, the pay off can be very nice ;-)

I was thinking more like 5, to be fair.

That way I can keep everyone happy, and spend a nice amount of time with each person. Most sellers just oversell and can't handle support and end up ruining their reputation on the forums and yeah... I plan to be a member for many years to come and the market possibilities on here is unbelievable.

No problem. That is how you feel and that is fine by me.

I didn't say I was perfect at PPD, I'm not, I admit this, but I sure as hell put a lot of effort in and wouldn't mind helping other people, too.

My method, I can guarantee would be one of the best, which is why I offered to get reviews too. I'm not in it to make quick money from gullible people writing shitty saturated methods.

But don't worry, I would never turn in to a scammer selling public methods.

If anything, I'm always looking for scams online and helping take them down. I don't believe in scamming hard earned cash.

Thanks again.

Sorry I forgot to add... I probably would lower the price to about $ 100.

I think that would be fair considering the amount of work and time I would put in to it.

And yeah, I would want honest feedback (Meaning good or bad - honesty in selling eggs you somewhere in life people) from a few trusted people before putting it on sale.

This is just me offering and asking questions, no final plan if I will make it yet.
