Thread: Take out the Netflix and Hulu Section to Gain More Space.

Sigma - September 24, 2013, 7:44 pm

All the thread includes is: new members asking for accounts, members giving out accounts, and no discussion what-so-ever on Hulu. There is no point in having the section and Omni will have more space.

I agree with your view on the section, but I'm curious as to what you mean by "more space". MyBB doesn't really limit the amount of sections you can add.

Just to take out another section to slim, "General Topics" down.

This was suggested and denied in the past, but I believe this should be done since that section is nothing but LQ threads asking for free stuff, there is little to no threads about actual Netflix or Hulu content.

Slightly disagree, do not take it out, it needs to be severely cleaned up and add stricter rules in posting for that particular section.

Hayley Williams - September 24, 2013, 7:52 pm

The section is there for the low quality post. If it wasn't there, then all the request will be on other sections and it will make everything else a mess.

I'm sure Omni can figure out a way to change it up a bit.

While youre at it take out the lounge maybe I don't think that's used much. The hulu section however is used more than kim k after an nba game

When it was last suggested, a mentor said that (can't remember which one).

Skorp - September 24, 2013, 7:58 pm

Yep. So many...

The_Super_Phreak - September 24, 2013, 9:01 pm

Aw you missed mine in the screen cap. I say leave it. If you don't like it don't enter it. Kind of like that fucking weird anime section. I don't go in it, I don't really care. Is it all LQP? Yes, but if it wasn't there it would be all over the lounge, video, and movie sections.

Invisus - September 25, 2013, 7:37 am

Just look a quick look at the forum and there honestly is no use for it. Seems like quite a pathetic corner actually.

adampelletgun - September 25, 2013, 10:10 am

How about we just merge all the Request sections into one section?

Would keep all the LQ threads in one place just like the Hacking Requests section.

jour - September 25, 2013, 11:01 am

It doesn't need to be removed, it just need a cleanup.

(Sep 25, 2013 10:38 AM)- Sam - Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Terrible idea, the section would just be full of 1 post leechers requesting free things. I'm pretty sure Netflix/Hulu accounts are already frowned upon by staff.

So are all the LQ hack requests. Omni created the section to keep all the LQ threads in one place.

So have it like pm's or something. Maybe like 300 posts to post in it?

You can't suggest member restrictions.

Didn't suggest, just commented what they would probably do if they were to institute that section.
