GLWS mate, I would suggest accepting PayPal as well as it's easier and more safer than transferring bitcoins.

Dextral - October 9, 2013, 1:24 am

Have you ever wondered why you're not selling?

Like maybe lowering the price, offering in bulks, etc.

(Oct 26, 2013 12:59 AM)eoNe Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) still selling random steam accounts drop me a pm. Look, I don't want to be a stick in the mud but please stop gravedigging your own thread. if you want more action give away vouch copies and tell them to vouch on your thread.

Step 1. Give account

Step 2. Ask for them to vouch on thread

Step 3. Click "Quote" and copy all of the text and click "Edit" On your original thread and then type in...

Code Vouches...

[spoiler]

Code you Copied earlier.

[/spoiler] I hope I have been an assistance! Just please stop grave digging and I apologise if it came off as if I were Sales-Trashing and/or Vouch Copy Begging.

BTW a nice tip for selling would be to not have a Warning Level + Accept Paypal.

eoNe - October 28, 2013, 1:39 am

I cant accept Paypal beacuse cant make paypal from my country i dont know why i have warning level and you asking for vouch copy that is it on pm same i have vouches from mentor on other threads and some here i dont need more vouches.

What do I get when I buy an account?

Do I get the email it's registered with and it's password too? And what if their original owner tries retrieving it?

If you don't even have CSS accounts then I can only imagine how mad quality these are...no wonders no one is buying.
