Thread: Newest Signature

This is my newest signature now seeing that Logos are not my forte.

Focused on my depth, used dodge tool for lighting now instead of a global light source. Made sure not to over use Topaz and only used it to enhance the signature.

Hope you guys enjoy as always.

Whoa, this is amazing. I'm a bit of a rookie when it come to Photo Shop or programs like it. I was just curious to know if you made it on adobe PS. If not would you mind sharing what program you used!

Many Thanks, Geofry.

Photoshop CS6, if you ever want lessons, I offer them for 5$ an hour and I promise that you will be better by the end of that hour.

Thanks for your input man! Yea, I've been doing this officially for a month now and I'm garbage at text.

Wow, that looks amazing. I really like the colors and how everything just carries your eye cross the page. Only thing i would change is the text, the last couple letters are really hard to see.

I really like it, but I don't think that was a good choice of font.

Good job on it, just change the font I suppose.
