So far I know, if you have all thos reversals, you should deal with Windows keys or something.
Something which is digital.

amy santiago - October 5, 2013, 9:42 am

they weren't reversals I sent refunds as I ran out of stock no I am not selling keys at the moment will sell them soon

yes all of these items are digital

and yes it is whitehat

Watch out, eBay are closing many accounts recently for selling digital items such as keys, downloads and things like that. Good luck though!

I need this method, very good money making OP.

Fayz_Golden - October 5, 2013, 10:01 am

Made 1.7k with the method hes using :)

But yea, it's getting VERY saturated and eBay and Microsoft are working together to end all of it.

REEEEERRRE - October 5, 2013, 10:30 am

Yes. I would stop before things become more serious. But, good job! ?

amy santiago - October 5, 2013, 10:36 am

Actually I can make a lot more but the problem is my eBay is new and all my info on both the accounts is fake so I am stopping at $500 for this month will continue next month making more

Whats stealth used for and how can one make money?

uagalex - January 28, 2023, 2:23 pm

If you have plenty of spare time you can try going to autobody shops and scrapping some parts for sale. I did this for months after quitting my management job. :)
