Just finished watching the first episode, seems like things are getting a move on now...
I think this seems really promising.

Thoughts on it?

I'm truly going to enjoy this anticipated series!

I love the new character route they've picked up.

As usual LB! gives a rollercoaster of feels, in the 1st episode the first half way eh.. but the second part was really put well).

Hopefully they execute well just like the VN. Also, not sure what people meant when 2nd season quality shot up really well compared to 1st. Visually? Dialogue? Speech(voice?)
