Thread: BTNH's Essays and More: Writing Service for Sale

BTNH - October 9, 2013, 2:48 pm

Background

I'm done with school. I have a lot of free time lately, which is spent on coding, playstation 3, and netflix. So I might as well use some of the talents I've developed through my experience with dozens of writing assignments. I wrote countless essays in high school and college, often at the last second, usually 3-5 pages in under an hour and got consistent A's and B's. Note that I did get B's. Sometimes the grader is more important than the paper, so keep that in mind.

I'm offering this service to people who are:

- bad at English
- lazy
- wealthy
- human

If you are one or more of the above, perhaps this is for you. If you've been assigned an essay for some class that you don't want to do for any reason, and are willing to pay someone to do it for you, I will do it! I am fluent in English and have grammatical skills that Jesus would kill for.

What is the service for, specifically?

The offered service is mostly going to be for English/History/Philosophy essays (Up to 8 page length), but if you need poetry, rap, haikus, or anything similar, I can probably do that for you too. I've been writing rap for years, so it's not difficult for me to put together intricate rhymes, sophisticated analogies and metaphors, and even genuine hip-hop flavor you wouldn't normally expect from someone writing English essays. On top of it all, I can usually do it rather quickly.

Prices?

Price will be negotiated depending on page length, difficulty of the topic, how much time is allocated, etc. The average essay, writing assignment, project, etc (3-8 pages) will cost anywhere from $20-250. For lengthy university papers, especially with less time to do it, it will cost more. But expect $50-120 for most higher-level essays. $250 is a high price, and I've never charged that high for anything, but it's there for someone who wants an 8 page paper done in 6 hours or something.

What makes this service better than the rest?

Something other similar service providers might not offer, which I definitely can, is flexibility as a writer. If you want an essay that doesn't sound completely formal and grammatical (to convince readers that you didn't have someone else write it), I can do that. Just let me know exactly how you want it done. I will pose as anything from a foreign point of view, to a professional author, to a government official, to a simple historian, to a racist or ignorant high school student, to a ghetto junkie if it suits you.

I also would prefer to know what kind of grader you have or are expecting, so I know who to appeal to and what level of professionalism is expected.

Of course, it has to be reasonable. If you want the tone of someone working with the government, you can't expect me to have the exact vocabulary of an agent or something. Make sure it's at least feasible, and I will probably be able to get it done. If it takes a day or two to learn, I may be up for it. After all, there's nothing lost for me, if I'm learning something new.

Rules

- 1) You must allow sufficient time for the essay to be completed. Minimum of 72 hours given to me with all details of the finished work/prompt/rules/etc. All special rules must be specified with enough time left to produce a quality piece of work. Don't make it impossible for me. Chances are, I will be done in less than 24-48 hours. But make sure I have enough time in case problems occur.
- 2) Don't expect an essay written up unless we have spoken and the payment has been confirmed.
- 3) If there is a book that has to be read, there's a chance I've already read it. However, let me know as soon as possible, and I will see if I can still provide the service.
- 3) Accepting Paypal or Payza payments only. Preferably verified accounts.
- 4) No refunds after essay is completed and sent. I don't start writing until the payment is received and verified. Otherwise, it's not worth my time to risk writing the essay for nothing.

Limited Time Offers

How about a back-to-school sale? The first 3 essays requested are only $15. Must be 3 pages or less, no book required. First come, first serve. When this message is gone, the offer is over.
One essay and one question-response assignment bought.

One more $15 offer left.

$50-$100 for a 3-5 page essay is insane. The top writers here on HF do it for a lot less.

Nonetheless, goodluck with sales.

Idk why you boast about your great English and grammatical skills when I see syntax errors, and other obvious flaws left and right. Maybe you should have carefully read over what you typed, prior to posting it. A thread advertising a writing service should try and demonstrate your best skills and sentence structure. From this, I can not see you writing a great college paper. You're charging $100 for a 3-5 page paper..? I haven't had to write one of those since middle school. So does that mean $1000 for a 35 page paper? Not saying your teachers went easy on you.. but I had to write a 40 page thesis and defend it in-front of three history professors. If you didn't pass, you had to come back and try next semester.

Anyways, with that being said.. If you can write in all the fashions that you have stated, why not post some great work, and some not so great work, so potential customers can see your "diverse style" of writing, along with your work in general.

Good luck!

The boasting is more for comedic purposes than for the sake of advertising, but please point out areas I should correct, if there are any. I agree, a thread like this should display great writing skills, but I don't want to look like a try-hard at the same time. I'm advertising with a down-to-earth tone so readers can connect more. I don't want to look like I'm belittling you by using poetic or intricate sentence structure just to say the same message I have said above. Keeping something like this succinct and to the point seemed like a better idea. The writing creativity can come out when there is a customer interested. ;)

I am not sure what people here charge (I've noticed a lot of people do random things for a few dollars - although I haven't seen any essay-writing threads) but I have written essays and completed writing tasks for people for usually $60-100 in school. Unfortunately, I don't have those anymore to post them here as examples.

3-5 page papers are the majority of high school essays, as well as a lot of college papers. My longest paper was 10-15 pages in college, and that was one out of a lot of papers. The average was 4-6, and sometimes 8. Of course, if you're writing a thesis, you'd better do that yourself. I wouldn't write a decent 30 page paper for just $100.

But wow, I feel bad if you had to write 40 pagers in high school. That's tough. What school did you go to, if you don't mind?

For anyone interested, prices are negotiable. If you have a decent offer, I will consider it more right now than when (or if) I am later swamped with a lot of expected papers.

I just finished a 4-page essay analyzing Martin Luther King Jr.'s speeches for someone who isn't a member here. It required me to read 3 full speeches and it wasn't too difficult, but it was a bit more work than average. I only charged $50. I can't post the essay here in case google catches it; I don't want him to get in trouble for plagiarism. But if anyone wants to see part of it or something, PM me. I normally would have charged more but he's a good friend. My $15 short essay sale is still going on.

Nonetheless, goodluck with sales. Then again the top writers of HF have cost me $60 with nothing to show for it. JABanking failed to get it to me by the due date and never apologized, and that was for the 3 page rough draft...

I went to another kid to finish the essay and when I brought it to the teacher she said I had to scratch the whole thing and start over because it was almost completely irrelevant to what the assignment was about.

Wow that sucks. Did you check out what the second kid gave you at least? I made my friend go through the essay and make sure it sounded legit for him to turn in as well as to ensure that he knows what it's about if he's questioned.

If someone failed to get me something like this and it was like 6 PM the night before, I'd just do it to be safe. But if you're ever interested, I give you my word, I won't fuck you over. If there's ever an issue and I cannot do it, I will notify you within 24 hours at the very LEAST.

I have been fucked over by HF members twice now, so I know what it's like. The average (that I've encountered) seem a tad bit greedy for money, and will risk their online reputation for like five bucks sometimes lol. I already have other sources of income so I don't NEED the extra money badly enough to fuck people over for it.

How much would it be for a 700 word scholar ship essay over leadership? Would you do it for $5-$10?

Could you tell me the prompt? $5-$10 is a bit cheap though to be honest..700 words is over 2 pages double spaced. I would typically charge about $20-30 for a moderately difficult 2 page paper. I could do yours for the $15 deal though. If you're still interested let me know.

I need an essay done. Please PM me for your skype. I also was wondering if that next $15 discount would apply to me as well.

BTNH - January 3, 2014, 9:17 pm

Sorry for the late replies, I've been a little busy. If anyone's still interested, feel free to PM me or reply to this thread. I'll try to check on it more often from now on.
