Thread: Can I get my own avatar?

?Fetz? - October 14, 2013, 6:57 pm

Okay, so I have seen a couple normal members with custom avatars. When I go to my avatar page, it doesn't let me upload one. Does anyone know how normal members get custom avatars? Thanks in advanced, Fetz

Yup, make a gravatar account with the same email you used for HF and you should be able to use any avatar you upload to gravatar.

Make a gravatar account with the email which you used to register on HF. You can then choose your avatar that you upload to gravatar.

Refer to this thread if you want to understand it better:
