Sai's smudge looks dope. I wonder why Infrac and Agi's weren't in here T.T But sick work, I like how most of them blended in together smoothly. Reminds me of the TF header.

ahh okay I only read the credits part and looked at the list.
But anyways the style looks really like some thing AV would come up with.

If you tried to Escher the thing it didn't really work out. Need better transitions.

In what? I didn't do the transitions and the tag was nothing.

In your tag.
On a side note, thee transitions would be great idea hadn't the tags all have different styles, if they were all smudges, par example, it would have looked a lot better.

Infrah, echoes and agi didn't sign up for doing this. It was only members who wanted to join in that had to do anything :)
