SocialBoosting.us

Hello HF, I'm here selling my website called Social Boosting - Social Boosting is a great website for purchasing a boost on your Social Media Reputation.

I never advertised this site anywhere to gain traffic really, I only set it up to get more involved with HF. As of now I am really busy again with work and don't have much time to do this.

I will also delete my paypal buttons and write how to set up your own paypal buttons.

I'm interested in buying, I would like to see revenue proofs of the website. But with the website design layout and it's organization doesn't worth much. If I purchase this, I will change all the layout of the website so what will count more it's your customers payments and traffic.

I posted in the thread:

I have only made a small amount of sales on HF, nothing big. Only customers were basically 1 timers on HF. Other than that I do not have any regular customers.
