No guarantee on which browser(s) the traffic will come from, though it's mainly IE/FF/Chrome respectively, no mobile.

Got a thread design made and lowered the prices.

As of recently, one of my customers reported 17% on RIG, it really just depends if you get geo targetted or not as I can't make any promises though I'll be more than happy to make sure you're satisfied.

I am now able to accept Paypal, hit me up for more info.
