Thread: Need a present idea!

The LAD Bible - November 3, 2013, 2:23 am

Hi,

Well, one of my friends in real life is crazy about Manga/Anime, whatever it is.

It's approaching Christmas now, and I'm thinking about presents. What would be a good present to buy him? I don't care whether I buy some kind of virtual good off a HF member or I get off my lazy ass and go to a store.

Any replies are appreciated, its my first post in this section! ?

Thanks.

Hm..

I would recommend either some manga (which is basically just Japanese comics) or a few months of premium on crunchyroll (Which is a streaming site for anime).

Crunchyroll is here <http://www.crunchyroll.com/>

If he likes anime, then it's safe to say he would use this. It has a ton of popular shows of many different genres.

As for what manga, I would need to know some he already likes.

Thanks bro!

Appreciated.

+1 reputation ?

If you can find out, what her/his favourite anime/manga are, you could get her/him something from etsy.com - a lot of great stuff there.

If he's really an otaku, you should buy some of his popular mangas or anime in DVD's.
