Thread: My past 2+ years on HF |2k posts|

Troye - November 3, 2013, 4:38 pm

This is going to be my feedback thread from the past 2 years of being a member. First I will start off by letting you get to know me. My name is Tom and I'm a senior in high school. I love computers and programming, although I'm not good at either. I plan on joining the US armed forces when I graduate and eventually pursue a dream job of becoming a animal physiologist.

Why I joined:

I joined the forums mainly to find a modded client for Minecraft. I slowly started coming back more often and posting there more and more. I eventually posted everyday and opened up more to giving suggestions and my opinions. As much as I hate that section of the forums now, it was my home.

I eventually upgraded myself to L33T and made threads in different sections. After about 6 months I went inactive for a while. I didn't even sign on once and was going through a very big personal change. On May 26 2012 I came back and showed my "face" back into the community. I was surprised at the changes in the short time and even more surprised people remembered me.

Fast forward to 7-23-12 when I bought Ub3r. I started to have spurts of activity for a few weeks where I would post a lot or barely any time at all. I moved into the iOS section and helped out answering people's questions in there. I've now been recently bouncing around in video game sub-forums.

Groups:

I have applied to some groups and never got accepted. I do think that most groups are high quality. I also enjoy seeing groups like The Brotherhood and The Empire post a lot of tutorials around the forums.

Staff:

Omniscient - You are really the only staff/admin I have talked to and got help from. As busy as you are running a huge forum, you replied within 5 minutes every time. Thank you for all the help.

Factor8 & Xch4ng3 - I hate pairing you guys up because you handle different things around here. I've never talked to you guys nor seen you around in threads posting. You are the "dark knights" of this forum to me, protecting it in the shadows. Thanks for that.

Judge Dredd - You are one of the staff I respect the most. When I got a warning a while ago you answered all my questions about it and made everything clear about what is considered what. I was quite shocked when you were demoted, but I'm glad to see you on the staff list again.

Paradoxum - Haven't seen you around a lot either, but I do notice you banning a lot of people. Thank you for keeping the community safe.

Chris & D3xus - You guys are new to me and I never see either of you posting. I'm going to assume you guys do help with the forum and I thank you for it.

Final Words:

Thank you for reading my Feedback thread. Sorry if it was so short and boring to read. I know it is nothing special and I'm nothing special, but it feels good being able to share my story.

Who the fuck are you?

- No offence. <3

What's your opinions of some of the sections on the site? I'd really like to know.

Kioshi - November 3, 2013, 5:10 pm

You something special, You may not be announced and "Popular" around the forum, Hell... None of us were ment to be known here. I don't myself care for the popularity however... You are a valued member. Not a lot stay for such a long period of time. You will always be valued, Good Decisions or Bad, Never give your self low self esteem.

I also thank you for taking the time out to post this thread, It is a good example for others and very Informational. Keep it up..

I'd really like to know.I loved being in the iOS section and the xbox related sections. iOS is the only apple software I like and enjoy. Grin and a few other members are very very intelligent when it comes to that stuff. Yeah it has the same threads of "When is ios 7 jailbroken" but it is a high quality section. The xbox section is where I can find information on recent updates and what not. I'm currently in the Grand Theft Auto section a lot more than any other because I'm addicted to the game. The section is alright, still have the usual people who can't read 5 threads below. The Minecraft Griefing section is absolute shit, but it is my shit. The place is hostile and good luck in there. The other place I'm in a lot is the Lounge. Not too bad except for the "Why did you join" or "How old is HF". I like being able to help others and give advice and my opinions.

Don't measure yourself, none of us are special, we are all the same with the same privileges (except for Administrators and Staff members). Why do you think that being known is something special?

I don't think being known is being special, I really don't think anyone is special.

I STRONGLY disagree with you there, everyone is special IMO but I'd like to know you're reasoning behind that phrase.

OT: Great feedback thread man ^^ I always enjoy reading these.

Yeah, everyone is special because everyone has a different personality.

It's not just different personalities, it's everything.

tkeller93 - November 3, 2013, 11:32 pm

You bought Ub3r on my birthday. Fun fact.

Anyway, good feedback! I don't usually reply, but this one was straightforward and to the point. Seen you around a fair bit! Keep on goin'! :D

I agree that ever person is special, anyway I myself had some chanhes in life that made me leave HF, not deleting my account. Anyway OP great story.

Van Hohenheim - November 4, 2013, 9:41 am

I enjoyed reading this feedback, and don't worry everyone is special in there own way.

meltee - November 4, 2013, 10:34 pm

i've been on hf for nearly 5 years..dafuq

Latina Girl - November 6, 2013, 12:40 am

Nice post OP. I enjoy reading things like this. This site is really awesome. Don't worry about not being popular on this site. Just enjoy your time on it.

Daaksin - November 6, 2013, 12:45 am

Loved reading this mate. Never personally talked to you, but you seem like a good guy.

Lucky Jimmy - November 6, 2013, 6:42 pm

I miss the old hf. This site has gotten inflated with too much.. everything. Too many people, too many of the same posts, too many noobs. Ahh well, there's always a chance to turn it around.

Kamizuki - November 6, 2013, 7:20 pm

I think I have seen you around to be honest.

+3 on that one.
you cant just go around assuming.
Stop and smell them roses.
