Would NOT deal with this member, added him on skype offering a real offer as people were offering lowball offers because he was new, its worth way more.

He first gives me fake info, password "Puppies4321" etc, when thats not letting me sign in.

Then when he does give real info I get in, just as I am about to pay I check one last time, now im logged out, pass has changed and he has all my secondary info changed.

Tried to get the better of me, lucky I checked before hitting send.

Is there a way to prove that I'm a different user? Maybe ask social blade for the convo we had over Skype.

Chrazy - November 4, 2013, 1:15 pm

As i said in the other thread it's clear puppies is the scammer. A lot of what he is saying doesn't make sense.

90% of his rep is from giving away money. So he basically bought rep. His first comment to me which was random to the topic was "if you - rep me i'll report you" He seems to care a lot about rep and know all the ins and outs of this HF but he just joined last month...

On that he keeps accusing others of Photoshopping things, inspect element and multi accounts. I would suggest that he himself is a quite possibly a multi accounter who was most likely banned or scamming on here before. His skype name has a history of scamming.

As for his claims on photoshop - social blade offered video proof to prove he did not photoshop anything, while puppies his info was pre mediated screenshots anticipating the scam he was about to do.

I would give him 6/10 for his scam attempt. Obviously a regular scammer, put some effort into it, just made some amateur slack mistakes. Such as 'being logged out' If socialblade was the scammer, he'd have waited till he got the money before getting his account back. It literally makes no sense to take it back before payment if you are scamming.

Very good spot. Seems puppies has well and truly been rumbled. Hopefully somebody can retrieve the account for socialblade.

Fat Tony. - November 4, 2013, 1:51 pm

Puppies side, All the way. Anyways, good thing that you still have it. Anyways, use a MM the next time.

Understalker - November 4, 2013, 1:56 pm

Honestly this all doesn't seem right, I believe Puppies scammed SocialBlade imo.

Fat Tony. - November 4, 2013, 2:03 pm

Wait, after reading everything correctly. Puppie, you're the scammer.

Healasuk - November 4, 2013, 4:00 pm

Puppies I already saw another report on you and you claim he photoshopped his proof. Now on this you claim he changed the info after he gave you the correct info?

Why would he change the info once he gave you the CORRECT info BEFORE you sent the payment. It's obvious you are only targetting new members.

GanizFX - November 4, 2013, 11:40 pm

Looks like Puppies has well and truly been busted.

Good Game
