Let me rephrase what I have mentioned earlier, the reason accounts are so cheap these days is because there phished accounts, I have said mine are my own personal accounts, owned it since day 1.

I have had other offers outside HF which are $10+; People rather choose phished accounts over Original Owner because it relates in being more cheaper for the buyer.

well who cares if they are bruted or not?

if they are like 500-1000 days old, it doesn't matter.
