He tells you to post 150 posts on some shit forum lol!

OP: Go fuck yourself.

Maybe you shouldn't be a cheap fuck and keep asking for vouch copies?

Thread doesn't even have a thread design.

Not even a description on the Ebook.

No vouches.

OP doesn't even state a price in his thread.

Obviously no effort was put in this.

You expect people to buy this?

OP offered vouch copies, but in reality he is just advertising his forum.

Like who is going to post 150 posts on a random shit dead forum just for an ebook with such low quality user/thread?

I dont mind all those things i stated above, but atleast dont say you're giving vouch copies when your really not, just to advertise your forum.

He didn't say his giving out VOUCH copies, he said giving out FREE copies, which apparently has conditions behind them. Honestly if you're not happy then don't bother posting such a comment.

You are right friend... They ask for vouch copy... then if we don't give they abuse us... come-on man.. grow up... don't show your foul mouth habit here... if you want products for free... you surely have to do a lil work... which will not cost money... if you are short tempered and can't do that... just go for the money.... throw money and enjoy...
