Why the hell is greed in the wrong if he doesn't want to give you the account? It's your fault you got it taken from you. OP got it from the person who took it from you. He's entitled to the account. It's obvious you're just butthurt.

GLWS OP

As iv said to you THREE TIMES NOW Just because I got it off a person that scammed 3 people with it does not make you entitled to it, Mike got scammed before you did and you don't see him complaining stop trying to trash my thread.

How are we ever supposed to buy an account like this and actually do something with it when its been through So Many Hands? Tbh Im Scared of it getting stolen off me as it is popular that people steal and scam these accounts left right and center.

This is a great price. I've recently done a couple deals with Greed and he's legit.
