Thread: Scammed by Fire UID=397644 \$150 PP

Snooper - November 11, 2013, 9:36 pm

This user is selling a public method. Outdated method to top it off.

Nowhere on his thread did it say he would provide full support until I bought the ebook and pointed it out, he then edited his thread.

Apparently I'm the scammer for charging back because I bought his public method.

I've bought plenty of shitty ebooks throughout my time here on HF and I've never charged back on none no matter how shitty they were,
until I came across this pricey public method.
I suggest anyone not to buy this ebook.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Here is the time we were talking, at the time his thread didn't say he wouldn't provide full support.

and he edited his thread

Here I pointed out a few times when I told him he should of posted on his thread that he wouldn't provide full support.

and here is this

Here is me talking to my buddy about this and even he knows the method is public.

So pretty much he's selling a public method. Saying that me and steroids under 18 yes! scammed him when he's the one scamming us by selling a public method.
I could go on TV or join me so anyone could see this if they think its fake.

Hopefully we get our cash back, because I know he wont refund us.

Even if his method is public.

fifman - November 11, 2013, 10:17 pm

I even asked on fire's thread if it was the ebay method with alittle bit how to do it being the chargeback method and he said it was not that method. Sorry to hear that you got scammed OP.
