I'm building a new gaming PC soon with the income I've made online.

I guess I'll buy some games with it aswell :D

I'd like to see if you can gift the following games.. and at what cost to me.

- Fallout 3
- Fallout: New vegas
- Modern Warfare 2
- Modern Warfare 3
- Blackops 1
- Call of Duty: World at war
- Black ops 2
- Call of Duty Ghost
- Counter strike source
- Counter strike global offense
- Skyrim
- Battlefield 3
- Battlefield 4

I'm extremely interested..

If the price is right, you might have your self a consistent buyer.

Let me know OP.

Firstly, you most certainly didn't give me the picture I requested.

That's why we are having this issue, silly boy.

Every single other user that has purchased from me, I assume followed the simple instructions I leave at the beginning of each deal.

"So if you are ok with this deal I will send you a donation link to my paypal, once paid please PM me with your steam email. Within the next hour after that I will PM you with confirmation of gift.

If you want to get the guarentee of the extra copy if yours gets removed you must take a screenshot like this - gyazo.com/0488139d6ac1bfaf30a554713a1de12f

Showing your list of games with Ghosts in it and your account settings tab open showing the email you are going to tell me after payment.

It HAS to be your steam email.

Thank you."

That is the exact message I send.

This screenshot is used to provide the evidence that the game has been redeemed.

I am not wasting my time looking at livestreams or whatever other absurd thing you were offering, if you aren't smart enough to follow simple information to validate your guarantee then you don't deserve special treatment.

As you can see from the picture below, our full conversation since the game supposedly got removed.

Now I have not "scammed" nor have I done anything wrong, if you had of followed simple instructions you would have a brand new copy right now.

And sadly, you didn't follow simple rules to set up your guarantee.

Guys, when I am dealing with you and I mention the guarantee, PLEASE just save your screenshot that I request.

Otherwise, if the game had the off chance of getting removed, then I need to know you didn't just redeem the gift to your inventory and gift to a friend.

ARe this gifts obtained via legal mean not whitehat, greyhat method to obtain them ?

Will u accept refund or similar, if Steam revoke the game from the steam?

IF yes, I would ask how much for AC IV Black Flag.

Why im telling this? Because recently I've bought AC IV last month before releases, and steam revoked me from my inventory because the seller "from here" used a fraud method to obtain the gifts and sell it for less than 50% from Steam and I don't like spend my money for nothing ^^

Awfully suspicious, the first time I sent you a game, it was removed within less than an hour, second time it was removed in a day or two.

That has never happened to anyone else, maybe your account has been used for suspicious activity previous to buying this gift.

When you say "if I sell you a game and it gets removed from your account," the only logical explanation I can think of for this is that it's carded. Someone gifted me a game before that was later removed and Steam told me that the game was bought using a stolen credit card.

Hence the guarantee, they are used with a method that obviously violates the terms of steam... the fact they require you to purchase games.

You can't go from that to carding.

Your rep and free copy indeed does NOT proof that you don't card. It's a proof of customer satisfaction which is good. Some people just don't want to get involved with carding at all and if you could proof that you don't card you will get some more people to buy from you.

Just message a trusted member to let you watch over the shoulder while you get someone a game on steam. You don't have to reveal all of it. Just show this person what you kinda do that could proof you're not carding. Then the trusted member would vouch for you. None of my business and I personally don't care if you card or not. Just trying to let you know that this would be an option. Good luck with sales. Please pm me so I can buy from you :D

Considering the fact that this has happened many times on HF before and to me personally at least 3 times, there is a very high chance that this is done through carding as it is probably unlikely for one to be able to get Steam games and sell them for 50% off.

It's okay, once Loki contacts Steam and clears this up then we'll see how these were obtained.

Dark if u need help contact me too. For all users that are telling this user is using carding methods. It's totally fake. I know his method, its against T.O.S of Steam but is not related to Carding or some blackhat activity. Simply its a thing that is non-allowed by STEAM.

Such as selling Steam accounts That are not-allowed too

Futhermore, He sold me around 1 Month ago a steam gift AC BLACK FLAG, that never was revoked, and im with 60% of the game yet. If you want proofs, then addme to steam.

Futhermore, before tell nothing you should read his T.O.S, he is offering "refunding the game" always if u has follow his instructions. That are: (Photos when u make the deal with him, and u redeemed it into your steam account). With that if u got a revoked game, atleast for me all bought games weren't revoked yet since a long time, you'll get a refund with another Game.

BTW, if you don't wait to him (we are on christmas) and give him all proofs, then you don't have the right to get refund. Why? Because is not his fault.

BTW, Don't hesitate to buy from him and Dark maybe you dont read it but: Hope you'll answer me

My method states that there is a small chance of this happening, alot of people focus on the negatives before the positives.

I have had tons of vouches in a close proximity of one another but no one takes those into account. I am not forcing anyone to deal with me, you do it if you want.

The games are 50% the normal price of steam, you have to be prepared to take a small risk.

It just so happens that a couple games were revoked near the same time which makes me look terrible.

Sorry about it, but anyone needing a guarantee copy should come to me first without posting on the thread.

The vouches arent taken near as serious as the bad posts.
Accounts DO NOT get locked from my method, either his account had been doing something that raised attention of steam before hand, or there was some sort of glitch within the system.

And in saying that I wouldn't even consider my method fraudulent, they probably just bulk that in with any method that is not considered legit buying from their store.
I highly doubt this;

The day I told you my games was revoked you tried to use the excuse of your sister only being there for one more day, I planned to wait and see if I could get an answer from Steam and I've told you plain as day I'd just prefer a refund over paypal as this is too much of an hassle, your next answer was "I just spent all the money on a gift for my mother".

Why do you have so many excuses? I can't buy from the steam market, nor can I do anything money related on steam over this.

I want my refund.

For those thinking of buying from him, I suggest not doing it if you do get that small chance of getting caught you can't add or buy games after it. My account is stuck with what it has had, lost what I bought and he's refusing a refund.

fuegox - December 31, 2013, 1:19 pm

Steam's never lock accounts for using steam gift. Why i Know this? Cause I had been scammed for 2 gifts timea ago with other different users from here.

All my steams gift were revoked and after contact Steam they told me: Don't accept gifts from strange or we will contact authorities.

They can't block or lock you withou any proof. Well in theory they can if u follow that T.O.S but never did it. Why?

Simple, you can buy all gifts from anywhere. If the git is blackhat or greyhat you has a high risk to be revoked by steam. But how they will know if u buy from illegall sites? If you receive gifts from strange blacks, how they can guarantee that "seller" maybe don't joke you?

Futhermore, if you have any problem you always can tell them. Sorry But i was using Steamgifts.com platform and the user sent me the gift using my email. Simple and easy, and ur account won't be locked

I asked you to wait patiently for steam reply, because I have no clue if the reason your account was locked was because of me, for all I know you may have used the account for carding or scamming which would also lock your account, hence why I want to wait for a reply from steam. You are suggesting you will chargeback because steam are taking a while to reply and you have no patience.

I will GLADLY add copies to replace your current one, but as mentioned you are completely over reacting because you cannot wait for steam to reply to your email.

No refund will be even considered until they do reply.
End of discussion.

If I was scamming it'd say I was a scammer here - <http://steamrep.com/search?q=Vrykodlak>

Does it say I'm a scammer? No.

If I was carding, why wasn't more than just your games removed? Why was it just games I bought from you I have all the screenshots to say it was 5 products removed all of which I bought from you.
