HF, for fucks sake shall we all stop PM'ing for the ebooks and methods that repeat what we all know....Stop press...post now at least something new, something that is not gonna apparently make us ££££££££, just something that we can earn off...We're all raping probux and coin gen, and fucking points2fucking earn...no refs,no clicks, no spam, just money.....And if that is not possible, then I am sure with a few heads we can make a method, get rich(like every other cunt) earn some then sell our £29 method to pricks like us, and reap the rewards!

How about you stop posting LQ threads like this one and go looking for a method for yourself?

Here's a way to find a method.

Find what a lot of popular sites do/have in common, connect the dots, find clues and come to a conclusion and reap the rewards!

Nice reply, prick! Your words lead me to click your signature..Thats sarcasm ?

Took the time to re-read your post....my conclusion...you are a huge prick. Research a method? Join the dots? This was the point of my thread..
