Thread: The Free Bitcoin, Litecoin, and Altcoin Faucet List

Crypto™ - November 21, 2013, 2:49 pm

Are you looking to get some free Bitcoins or Litecoins, here's a list of faucets that'll help you get started. If one stops working, or you find a new one, PM me or post here, and I'll add it to the list.

Bitcoin

Coinbox.me - Not a faucet site in of itself, but rather a payment provider for a large network of faucets listed on their homepage.

Daily Bitcoins - One of the oldest faucet sites out there. It has "jackpots" where you can get more Bitcoins at specific times. Check under "Prizes" for times.

Bitcoiner - Faucet that gives you more if you ask for a payout to the same address every day. Prize value fluctuates hourly.

Bitvisitor - Rewards you with Bitcoins for visiting sponsored websites through it.

CoinAd - A Bitcoin PTC site with weekly payouts.

Bitcoins 4 Me - Just a faucet site.

Bitcoin Addict - A Bitcoin faucet with "jackpots", similar to Daily Bitcoins.

BitcoinFaucet.tk - Just a faucet site.

Bit Hits - Just a faucet site.

Redcoins - Yet another faucet site.

TRZN - Yet another faucet site.

BTC Flow - Yet another faucet site.

CoinTube - Bitcoins for watching sponsored videos.

BitcoinTree - Yet another faucet site.

Earn Free Bitcoins - A site similar to Bitvisitor

CAPTCHA Coin - Solve CAPTCHAs for Bitcoin. Usually empty.

AllCoinFaucet - A Bitcoin Faucet that gives you the option to be paid out in Litecoins.

BitcoinGet - Sort of a "Mechanical Turk" for Bitcoins, where you do tasks in exchange for Bitcoins.

BTCClicks - A Bitcoin PTC site.

HotSwap's Faucet - Just a faucet.

MMOClub's Faucet - Another faucet.

Some sites were borrowed from Dorsch's list. Special thanks to them!

Also, thanks to SSCARL24 for submitting some faucets in the replies!

Litecoin

Litecoiner - Just a Litecoin faucet.

AllCoinFaucet - A Bitcoin Faucet that gives you the option to be paid out in Litecoins.

LTC4You - Another faucet.

Dogecoin

Dogecoin Faucet - Simple Dogecoin Faucet.

Sexcoin

Lavajumper Faucet - Just a faucet.

Hope this helps some of you. Enjoy.

As do I. There used to be more, but then just... Well... Died. They either stopped paying out, or disappeared completely.

SSCARL24 - November 22, 2013, 4:54 am

Add coinad.com. It's PTC website paying in BTC. Payments are done at the end of the week. Minimum payout is 0.000300 BTC.

EziNet - November 22, 2013, 5:26 am

Create list bro, Thanks for sharing ?

Chills - November 22, 2013, 5:27 am

Lol and if you spend all day on these sites you make a grand total of a couple cents :D

Lordanem - November 22, 2013, 8:05 am

thanks for the list, i will check them out soon

Diglett - November 22, 2013, 9:01 am

Yeah, I'm not going to use these sites again. Waste of time, if you use all sites you'll get like 0.004661 USD.

However it's free, which is a good thing.

Haha, pretty much true, but free money is better than no money, so it's a nice way to kill a little bit of down time.

Yeah, you can get much better money by investing/doing work for Bitcoin, but it's a nice way to get your address incorporated into the Blockchain. Get your hands on those firstbits ;D

Thanks! Added it to the list :) it's amazing how much Bitcoin some people will give out for free, or relatively little work.

I don't know about coinchat ? Last I checked, that was run by TradeFortress, aka Inputs.io. Don't know if it'll still pay out.

Edit: <http://pastebin.com/f6n6RFqP>

Not sure how relevant that still is, it's 20 days old.

Adding the second one in.

Also, may have found another chat, but not going to add it in yet.

Why on earth do these sites pay out anyways? Ad revenue I am guessing?

Ad revenue, spreading awareness about Bitcoin, shits and giggles, take your pick. :)

stts510 - December 11, 2013, 9:49 pm

I will check this out. Thanks for sharing.

Crypto™ - December 13, 2013, 1:13 am

Be sure to send me more faucets! I'll be updating this shortly!

Silkie - December 17, 2013, 10:05 am

Does anyone know if it would be profitable to automate all of this? Obviously something like death by captcha would be necessary, so it would probably lose money.

I believe Aenox semi-automated the process with his BitBot Faucet Farmer, though I haven't used it myself. Also, automation would certainly put a drain on profits.
