HIDDEN FOR PRIVACY REASONS

resent - November 23, 2013, 12:32 am

Do you have permission to use the pictures?

Dylan Wins - November 23, 2013, 1:21 am

You can use any picture, but some of them are subject to copyright and infringement of such copyrights can lead to legal proceedings if the image owner feels that you are using the pictures for commercial purposes.

EDIT: As for the pictures, if there is no nudity you should be fine.

FDNY - November 23, 2013, 1:23 am

As long as you have permission and there is absolutely no nudity, then yes, it's legal.

TheyCallMeNeon - November 23, 2013, 1:26 am

Yes this is legal, I just feel sorry for the girls that were walking around and someone took a photo of their ass and I doubt asked for permissions. GL with your website OP.

-Glare - November 23, 2013, 3:53 am

Yes, This is legal. Just watch out for copyright, That will be your only problem.

Saint5R - November 23, 2013, 4:44 am aslong as its not showing them naked without permission it is 100% legal, if the person has a problem with it and talk to you about it getting removed, just remove it.
