Football - November 25, 2013, 12:38 am

So yesturday i posted a thread about me selling my IG account.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3884932>

So this Guy asked me if he can have it for $590 over PM. I agreed with him. He also said that if can pay for a MM.

<https://gyazo.com/1de9d5530a55da5724425ee44ef96999>

After the said that to me i agreed to go first with him.

He said he does all the deals on HF to provide safety for himself and me.

<https://gyazo.com/0dd1e455dea07f50be5f98b3f4425f54>

Then i send him the password.

<https://gyazo.com/a34b920ae7b41fd59b46999b3a4353>

After that he disappered for 12 mins. He changed email and password. But i was lucky to recover it back.

<https://gyazo.com/992e9fbf2e1880a1ac3649c5b93d48f7>

After i recovered my account he said that "you are trying to scam me". And said i can keep his $500 worth RS account.

<https://gyazo.com/a8fac903523ab8f943f40566f9b9b506>

After that i sended him my password again and asked me to join him on teamviewer. When i joined him i sended him my password and this time he took like 10 mins to change the info again. Ohh God luckyly i was able to recover it back.

<https://gyazo.com/a6a40531505906509d7c8398fa73a032>

After all that luckyly i was lucky to get my account back. This is a heads up to everyone not to deal with this guy. Be Caution!

Sorry for my bad english.

I've known lads for a while, I'd be so surprised if he actually scammed, I hope his account didn't get hacked.

I see you got your account back, how is he trying to explain himself here?

Well i trusted him and i went first with him by sending him my password. After couple of min he changed the info. The deal was as soon as you get the account you send the payment instantly. Which he didn't.

Darkwin - November 25, 2013, 3:27 am

ROTFL the fail is strong lol bet he's feeling like an idiot rightnow, So did he ever send the money? If so did you keep it? or what did he say the third time you recovered it lol? You should put his UID in the title as well.

Maybe he changed the info as he may have been cautious about you changing the password once you received the payment?

I'm telling you man, it doesn't look like he was trying to scam you, I think you just got a little sketched out.

I might be wrong, some people have surprised me more.

Im happy you didn't lose anything.

That's really funny, obvious scam is obvious.

hitincreaser - November 25, 2013, 11:47 am

Its good you did it all over pms and not skype so admins can see the pms.Also looks like a legit scam report.

I don't see how that screenshot looks like an attempt at scamming.

Moreover it looks like Lads was about to send the payment, but first wanted to make sure the account was in his hands (What would the point of Football going first, if Lads wasn't allowed to secure the account before sending payment?), than Football took the account back after getting paranoid, which than made Lads say "Good think I didn't send the money" because it probably looked to Lads as if Football had been about to scam.

I'm just saying, OP wasn't scammed, and it doesn't seem Lads was attempting to scam based of the evidence shown.

WOW. your friend 'lads' is an obvious failed scammer. please stop trying to protect him , its obvious. he tried it 2x.

Seriously , stop tryna cover his ass. its obvious. idc if he has alot of rep and if he's been in the same group as you. The evidence is right there.

There is a difference between what I'm doing, and covering someones ass. I haven't spoken to Lads in four months, and I'd be making this same argument for any person whether I know them or not.

Don't be a fucking asshole, I am not protecting Lads from anything, if I was I'd probably have been even slight defensive in my previous posts. Rather, I'll I've done/said was that the interactions simply don't scream attempted scam to me; you obviously haven't read my post, because if you did you'd know that I'm not even slightly defending him.

It doesn't fucking matter that he's in the same group as me, you're replying to me as if I wrote "LADS DIDN'T SCAM ANYONE HE IS A PERFECT PERSON OMG I LOVE LADS HE HAS A TASTY DICK", when in reality I simply wrote that it doesn't seem like he was trying to scam, and rather it seems that there is a possibility OP was just being a bit paranoid.

Football - November 25, 2013, 11:18 pm

After I sended him the pass. He was away for 20 mins and not even replying to my pm. He changed the pass and even swap the account name to his and gave me a shitty name. But luckily I was able to get t back.

Yeah Kray we get that he may be your buddy and all but he's seen the report and hasn't bothered to respond, also going "afk" for 10-15 minutes during an transaction is already a red flag in itself even more when he comes back after OP recovers the account meanwhile the whole time he had the account he didn't even bother responding to OP's messages or say a peep.

I'm sorry but it would take an idiot to not believe that he was trying to scam, It doesn't matter what you do to defend him it doesn't take away from the fact that he got caught with the hand in the cookie jar. Doing it once is a mistake, Twice is an coincidence, Three times is just obvious bro.

For the record whether you choose to believe so or not, being in the same group as this alleged scammer and defending him is an conflict of interest within itself, Atleast imo.

Yo; I see where he looks suspicious, and I pointed that out originally, but TBH I don't understand OPs expectation to go first, on the conditional of not allowing him to secure the account first, he might as well go second.

doesnt matter the kid is a fucking scammer and needs to be taught a lesson which I am happy to do stdio - December 31, 2013, 12:59 am

I am not judging anyone but if someone promise instant payment then he must keep that promise.

I think there might be a little misunderstanding as well because you two should have decided about this password changing thing :)

In the end, you did not lost anything so its good we just saved ourselves from another scam in the history of HF

Understalker - December 31, 2013, 1:06 am

He has other scam reports on him already.

This seems legit, glad you got it all recovered.

Once a scammer always a scammer, i would never deal with anyone who has even a single scam report.

Be careful OP be very careful

Saphir? - December 31, 2013, 4:32 am

Everyone has a price that they'd be willing to go out with a bang on. I guess Lads' price was 590$ in Perfect Money.

??Tommy - December 31, 2013, 6:31 am

He asked to do a bitcoin exchange with me I told him I wouldn't without a middleman and then he stopped replying
