Same thing with me, you can see my rep. "Legal guy" doesn't respond to any of my messages, although I see him reading them (by lurking his profile).

Let us also see your LTC wallet. That is all you need to make this a prefect scam report.

Psilocin - November 27, 2013, 2:16 pm

He tried making me go first to an LTC exchange, luckily I declined

I would post my transactions too, but imgur is going nuts.

I guess we simply can chargeback?

You would trust someone who attempted to use credit card fraud on something?

Jesus man. Use your head for once.

Wolf Alpha - November 27, 2013, 5:24 pm

He tried to scam me as well.

Hopefully I was at work and didn't have time to deal with that retarded.
