'Snorlax - December 1, 2013, 5:02 am

My vote goes to Emylbus for his great contributions and great help as a mentor.

?Jax - December 1, 2013, 5:11 am

Spyro he's such a great guy, I remember reading a great HQ thread yesterday from him :)

Freddy Kru?ger - December 1, 2013, 5:15 am

My vote goes to Emylbus, he's one of the most helpful members around and is just generally a nice guy.

SoldierX - December 1, 2013, 5:18 am

Emylbus

He should win this, he truly deserves. ?

Revenge - December 1, 2013, 5:19 am

I'm going to vote for iceybunneh. She does a lot of work for the Wiki team and out of the contestants she probably deserves it most.

RDCA - December 1, 2013, 5:19 am

No one can vote for Emylbus.

I don't like to share. ;) Oh, btw, calling it a 100+ landslide for Emy.

DaCocaine - December 1, 2013, 5:23 am

I voted for:

Amnesia Haze

Because he's dutch.

adampelletgun - December 1, 2013, 5:23 am

My vote goes for Emylbus, good luck ?

Mohatu - December 1, 2013, 6:05 am

It's about time Emylbus wins this. You've affected me to the point where I get annoyed by my phone's browser because it lacks HFES. He's also a great mentor, and a fun person to be around.

Good luck buddy.

Teh Afro - December 1, 2013, 6:07 am

The fact I was even nominated is good enough for me. Looks like it's going to be a close call between Emy and Spyro. Good luck.

Makaveli The Don - December 1, 2013, 6:07 am

Also the only one who knows anything about hacking (not even just hacking, computers in general) on that list.

Cyrus - December 1, 2013, 6:11 am

Teh Afro got my vote, he truly does deserve this.

Although Emylbus will win because he's well known, well he also kind of deserves this for contributing an awesome userscript to us.

iNuke - December 1, 2013, 6:18 am

I can't even understand why Keeper does not already have the MOTM award. I mean, he should even have an award only for him.

He's contributing more than anyone here. But he got less votes since he's less popular than the others on the poll. I'm so disappointed.

That's just my opinion.

Good luck everybody, I voted for Keeper.

@Keeper, keep it up man, you do an awesome job with all your hacking tuts.

bigbea77 - December 1, 2013, 6:21 am

Spyro the Dragon

Gets my vote! Nice work man!

Wallet - December 1, 2013, 6:24 am

MOTM is an popularity contest, sadly it is the fact. The members who are nominated and mentioned in this poll all deserves an Award in my opinion, since it's all about popularity. To those who does not win; keep doing what you're doing, never give up. Once those popular members are thrown of the wagon it's your turn to shine.

The GRim - December 1, 2013, 6:27 am

Voted for Prime. Haven't even heard of most of the members on the contest.

SIM-1179501 - December 1, 2013, 6:30 am

Teh afro has done some favors for me.

Voted for him.

Arman? - December 1, 2013, 6:31 am

I voted for Prime, he is a great guy and he truly deserves this even if I see also some other members who deserve to win this.

Isidar - December 1, 2013, 6:31 am

Got to go with Froggy. She is a big help to HF and she also has helped me greatly by becoming a mod on my own forum.

HAX ME IM FAMOUS - December 1, 2013, 6:34 am

Stood between Spyro and Amnesia for me, had to go with Amnesia at last.

HopprJohn - December 1, 2013, 6:40 am

My vote goes in favor of Teh Afro.

He's a really helpful and generous member and easy to interact with.

Hope you win mahn.

Stapleton - December 1, 2013, 6:43 am

My vote goes to Emylbus. He's done a great job in the recent time, even as a Mentor.

Gustav - December 1, 2013, 6:43 am

Vote goes to my bud Emyl. Goodluck to the rest.

Miki - December 1, 2013, 6:45 am

A great member and nice to talk to.

pashabiceps - December 1, 2013, 6:55 am

Yes, let's vote for the best one to talk to, and not for the one that trully deserves it.

Keeper is the only one doing anything worth while.

That's what you think. I haven't seen what Keeper has made, because I am not into what he's doing.

If you take a look at Emylbus, you will notice his Hack Forums Enhancement Suite userscript. Just that script, is more known than Keeper. Only his one HFES thread has over 800 replies, which is the total of Keeper's 7 most replied to threads.

So don't come here and say that kind of stuff, because we all have our different opinions. You have yours, and we have ours, but don't say only one person deserves to win.

Mohatu - December 1, 2013, 7:02 am

To all those saying Keeper this and Keeper that, yes, he's done a lot for this forum and definitely deserves it. However, to say that he is the only one who deserves it is quite immature and disrespectful to the others on the list. This contest is, has, and will always be a competition about the one who has positively AFFECTED the most people. Writing hacking tutorials is not a red carpet towards the golden cup.

I agree. There's no disputing Keeper is probably one of the most intelligent users on that list and his tutorials are probably the most advanced and well written I've seen across the entire forum but they're at the point of being that advanced many members get lost reading them. Emylbus has done a lot but it is more, accessible(?) to a wider audience.

Exactly. Saying a single person is the only person who deserves to win.. That's disrespectful.

You guys are both right.

In my opinion, he's deserving it more than anyone, BUT by saying that I'm not saying that he's the only one to deserve it. Of course not. Everybody in the poll deserve it I guess.

@Snorlax Including some stats in your post won't help, because it will only prove it's all about popularity. I mean, okay HFES thread got more replies, and then what? I could just take a well known thread of the lounge with a lot of replies and say that too. Replies mean nothing. Again, it's my opinion.

Now, just voting for Emylbus because he's well known for his userscript, WITHOUT checking other's threads, including Keeper's, is unfair in my opinion.

Please, don't go down that road. The HFES can be used and appreciated by everyone, particularly those who tend to spam the fuck out of every section across this board. Are you seriously implying the number of replies has any correlation with their respective thread? Do you have any idea what a minute percentage of this forum even understand the titles of Keeper's threads? Every one of his tutorials take more time, skill, dedication and knowledge to complete than 150 of the other shit threads thrown around this site.

Yes, I agree that it's unfair to say he's the only one who deserves to be on the list, but it's perfectly accurate to say he's the only one who deserves to win the thing.

But that's just my opinion.
Fact.

So he's the only one who deserves it because he excels in 1/4 criteria?

They all deserve it. This is the Member of the Month, not "Most Knowledgeable Tutorial Writer".

Spyro The Dragon - December 1, 2013, 9:03 am

So what, I don't have the skills needed to make an enhancement package like Emylbus, so that automatically makes me not eligible to be in this? There is a reason as to why we were nominated you know.

They all deserve it. This is the Member of the Month, not "Most Knowledgeable Tutorial Writer". See Teh Afro's reply. Perhaps mine was a bit biased towards Keeper. However I find it highly disappointing to see someone with such a massive contribution towards the site ignored when they (in my opinion) frequently output such high quality content, something we as a community strive towards?

As for the image you replied with, well, Keeper ticks all those boxes. Its just unfortunate he can only be appreciated by a fraction of the population here, unlike Emylbus!

Exactly. It takes effort, you really need to stand out in order to be one of the 7-10 members chosen, out of over two MILLION, to partake in the poll positions. Even if you don't win, being on this list to begin with is something that should tell you that you are going a great job in the community, and that your efforts have not gone unnoticed. Whether that's by posting tutorials, helping people out, being a great moderator, donating in excess to the forum's future, or any other reasons why you stand out from the millions of other members present on this site.

Rob Ford - December 1, 2013, 9:09 am

I vote Spyro as he has always been an HQ member and helps out a lot of members as well!

Teh Afro - December 1, 2013, 9:10 am

I'm unsure why there is a need for an argument here. Any member should be happy with even being nominated as it shows they stood out enough to be noticed. There are users that deserve to win for multiple reasons, it's unfair to say one member deserves this more than others in my opinion.

I never said he didn't meet all of them, only that he clearly excels in the first one. ? He is a wonderful member, I can see that by his contributions, and I wish more members were like him. However, this forum covers a very wide variety of topics, and it takes being noticed in many of them in order to achieve votes. Keeper deserves it, without a doubt. But he isn't the only one who does. He simply spread himself very thin with the contributions he committed, causing people to not know who he is and instead vote for those who they know, which is unfortunate but that's just how it works.

I wouldn't say he's spread himself thin more that he has only covered a few certain topics. Almost to the point where it's not possible for most members to follow as, lets face it, this community is not on that kind of level. He's far above most normal users. Perhaps this makes him stand out in those sections but most users wouldn't normally visit for example the cryptography section so he's less well known than say Emylbus as he is active in quite a few sections and helps out in all of them.

Isidar - December 1, 2013, 9:22 am

Why don't you all just fucking vote and stop arguing who does or doesn't deserve it? Why argue over this? Whoever wins, wins. At the end of the day, everyone who's on that list has done extremely well, been a great member and deserve praise.

Please guys, just stop and congratulations to everyone on the list, you're assets to HF!

I think we're just repeating each other at this stage, so I'm gonna assume we're all on the same level. Therefore to conclude, thank you Keeper for all the HQ posts, but you have no chance of winning this because hackforums.net is really socialforums.net

Ps, pleasantly surprised to have some form of argument on this site without it resulting in a shitstorm of abuse. +1 to you both, figuratively speaking.

So as well as being pretty much guaranteed to win this Emy just got the diamond award. I'd like to say congratulations to Emy. He's got it in the bag now. ?

Seems to me like Sir. Emy is going to win by a long shot.

Not a hard choice for me at all. Emylbus gets my vote this month.

My vote goes to Emylbus. His contributions have been quite wide spread.

No opinion on all members, they all stand out above others, but compared to each other - Not much...

I'd have to go with Em, only one I've talked to.

EziNet - December 3, 2013, 10:14 pm

I can see my man Emylbus is winning, good luck to all others :)

No offense but how are these "Finalist" even chosen to begin with? Because about 90% of the members on that list i rarely see through the forum and i'm pretty active and usually lurk more than i post. Either-way Emylbus deserves this as i've seen him around contributing the most. Best of luck!

Well D3xus didn't have much choice in picking as only about 8-9 people nominated.

Yeah, Emy is totally going to lose this one. Totally.

Douchebag # 145 - December 4, 2013, 9:11 pm

There probably hasn't been this large of a gap between first and second for quite some time.

True, but for the record, I called it:

I don't like to share. ;) Oh, btw, calling it a 100+ landslide for Emy.
Either way, while it may be a bit early, congratulations Emy.

Emylbus and the Keeper was a difficult choice for me, but I ended up voting for Emylbus for all the effort he puts in his posts in addition to his overall activity dedicated towards the forum. Good luck.
